

It's a matter of credibility, literacy and competence

Prior to responding to the latest gibberish from the White House -- you know, the domicile on the misspelt 'Capitol' Hill that houses the leaders of the ONCE most powerful nation on the planet, America! [Now famed for its nose-diving economy, stunningly inaccurate intelligence agencies, illegal activities, expansionist wars of plunder and aggression, torture, illegal detention etc, etc; all brought to you by men and women of unusual intelligence and skill!]

"We know Saddam has weapons of mass destruction because he just has," emphatically stated by a 'known' demented, Donald Rumsfeld! Perhaps he was attempting to compete with Paul Wolfowitz's infamous remark that Iraqis would welcome (aggressive) American invaders with "bouquets of flowers!"

How about Dick Cheney's, "we've broken the back of the insurgency" or the "mobile chemical (ice-cream truck) laboratories" producing anthrax (baby powder) a sample of which was held aloft at the UN by Colin Powell - once thought to be an intelligent man!

But the best is reserved for the comic book, murdering, President himself, George W Bush, who simply overflows with erudite one-liners and 'surgical' (in)accuracies.

Three weeks after the illegal invasion, his "mission accomplished" declaration of a won war in Iraq was so far removed from reality it promises to be a favourite with historians for generations. We should not forget that THE ENTIRE WHITE HOUSE SUBSCRIBED TO THAT WISHFUL DELUSION!

However, Bush is more familiar as the simplistic buffoon who is only capable of thinking in binary concepts - an indication of mental retardation. We all remember, and were astounded by, "you're either with us or you're with the terrorists," that statement did not augur well for the future and the future is NOW! Bush's feeble attempt to polarise the international community was doomed to failure due to the method of delivery -- inane, hillbilly gibberish. A variation of the hillbilly expression, 'you're either 'withus' or 'aginus!'

In view of recent American history, today's White House announcement should come as no surprise to anyone. Referring to the Sept. 6 2007, Israeli strike on Syria, the U.S. is demanding that Syria "come clean" regarding SUSPECTED nuclear installations!

We are not sure if Arab cultures are familiar with American slang or the use of vernacular expressions but we are sure that Arab leaders understand formal English, as most of their diplomats and advisers hold degrees from British universities! Slang expressions emanating from any government are not only inappropriate, they betray a level of (in)competence - so very evident in America today!

The above examples serve to illustrate that no truth has ever emanated from the Bush White House. America is now widely known as the world's number one LYING (and murdering) criminal nation.

With its current 'credentials' America is in no position to accuse or make demands on any other nation for any reason whatsoever!

Whatever Syria is SUSPECTED of it would pale against the REALITY of one million innocent lives lost since the illegal American invasion of Iraq and the four million displaced since the U.S. occupation.

Uneducated, incompetent, criminal, inept morons have destroyed the USA from within; they have lied from day one and continue to lie today; NOT ONE truthful sentence, in relation to foreign policy, has ever emanated from the current administration -- an astounding fact!

If any American wonders how the nation was ruined and why it continues on a path to certain annihilation, simply take a long look at the current leadership and weep! The most outstanding achievement of the Bush administration is that in a relatively short period of time it has turned the entire world against it -- America today is the most detested nation on earth!

Those who imagine the expiring presidency of Bush offers hope for the future are sorely mistaken! The current crop of presidential candidates offers only continuing folly. "I will OBLITERATE Iran," cries, Hillary 'Bilderberg' Clinton and "I'll stay in Iraq for a hundred years," says mad John McCain!

Little wonder that "nuke America" is becoming a popular slogan around the world today.
