and as we all know 'her' vocalisations indicate that it is all but over! Have you guessed? She is nature herself singing a refrain of devastation and massive planetary upheaval for humankind - THE ENTIRE ECOSPHERE IS OUT OF KILTER; all the ramifications of which are largely unknown BUT what is KNOWN is horrific!

Those who imagine rapid climate change cannot impact and activate forces in the earth's crust, think again. The entire crust of the earth is undergoing dynamic pressure changes and re-alignments due to massive ice melts and rapid - in geo-time -- changes in ocean and ground temperatures. What should we all expect - DISASTER, in a word!

Shifts in balance are capable of changing the alignment of the poles, as has occurred in the past - the geological record clearly indicates previous pole shifts.

The earth constantly adjusts in order to achieve cyclical harmony. Disturbed rotational and geological balances will inevitably achieve some form of dynamic equilibrium but the world may be a very different place. It may be extremely unfriendly to life that was once familiar and dominant. Humans like all mammals are an extremely fragile species; we should not forget how the once dominant reptile species were wiped out almost 'instantly' due to abrupt climate change triggered by rotational shifts and atmospheric conditions. Snap frozen Mammoths discovered in frigid Siberia with tropical vegetation in their stomachs testify to the fact.

Numerous indicators exist in the geological record that warn of a massive terrestrial disaster about to occur today!

Responsible scientists desperately seeking to make their case and warn governments to prepare for a very uncertain and calamitous future have largely been muzzled and sidelined by government-ruling Corporate interests. Make no mistake it is Big Business and CORPORATIONS that rule governments today!

It should therefore be no surprise for anyone to learn that almost nothing is being done to curtail the forces - POLLUTION -- that are negatively impacting the environment and planet. Corporate culture allows nothing to interfere with its bottom line - not even human sustainability -- the utter madness of it all!

It should also be easier to understand why incompetents such as Bush, and servile lackeys like Blair, Howard, Rudd, Merkel, Sarkozy, are placed in power. Make no mistake, these people serve their corporate masters, NOT the PUBLIC INTEREST - democracy died decades past!

Nevertheless, the people remain the most powerful force for social change on the planet.

It is now time to act and force the hand of governments or remove them from power by POPULAR WILL!

The crimes of the Corporations and their puppet leaderships are PLAIN TO SEE! It is time to hold the criminals to account or face a world plunged into warring hell and natural devastation.

Without massive preparation today tomorrow becomes unviable.

We are One
