

The simple and obvious solution

Zoologists marvel over how 'dumb' animals display foreknowledge of impending natural disasters; the tsunami in SE Asia and now the China earthquake -- giant pandas were seen 'parading' in unison (highly unusual behaviour) hours before the quake struck. Yet humans, who were once also able to detect similar and more information from their immediate physical and psychological environment, today seem unable to detect a solution when it stares them in the face!

The masses have been intentionally enslaved and managed via contrived economic debt strategies, notwithstanding those 'debt strategies' have today backfired in the form of the sub-prime credit crisis, which is only the 'cherry' on the economic total collapse cake!

Numerous commentators and social strategists have on countless occasions informed the public of an extremely simple solution to break the chains of economic slavery -- concerted, delaying of debt servicing! That tactic alone would break the banking sector, which hangs by a gossamer thread at the best of times. But delayed debt servicing requires simple organisation, as only a concerted effort would be successful.

Few realise that the finance and banking sectors hang by the finest of threads to existence! But the apathetic sheeple are fit for the slaughter and deserve their fate so I would address NATIONS, as they are more than able and extremely willing to free themselves from the slavery imposed on them by other nations.

Earlier this week the many nations of Latin America, despite their differences, signed a mutual cooperation pact, a type of Union/Parliament of South America (see link). That action lays the foundation for a concerted strategy to rid themselves of decades of imposed debt slavery the USA forced onto the region. The strategy could easily be extended to include Asian and African nations in similar circumstances; they would ALL gladly join the push to rid themselves of economic oppression and debt slavery.

All loans to America AND its financial proxies the IMF and WORLD BANK would be suspended with a view to re-negotiating or eliminating debt altogether! The only choice available to America in such circumstances would be to declare war on all Asia, Africa and Latin America, an action that would immediately incur a retaliatory response from other superpowers that would see the vile, murdering USA removed from the planet forever, good riddance!

For readers alarmed at the inevitability of the above scenario, I would add that we have simply articulated what has already been agreed upon by many developing nations. With assistance from superpowers that DO NOT bully or thief from weaker nations we WOULD ACHIEVE REAL FREEDOM, LIBERTY AND DEMOCRACY - now, where have I heard that before, surely not in Iraq?
