

Bush exposed yet again and again and again ...

I have lost count of the (too) numerous times Bush and senior members of his criminal government have been exposed for gross deceptions and criminal pursuits. If a HOLOCAUST in progress and an ECONOMIC MELT-DOWN AT HOME doesn't rouse the people what would former press secretary, Scott McClellan, hope to achieve with his revelations? Less than a week prior to McClellan's revelations, news of the loss/misappropriation of $15 BILLION in Iraq roused only a few yawns from the American population -- 'good luck' with book sales, Scott!

Pentagon auditors are unable to account for FIFTEEN BILLION DOLLARS, an amount and failure that would have brought down any previous government - but not a murmur, bang or even whimper from the cowering, thoroughly whipped and servile, American 'dog' population. What effect or repercussions do YOU imagine the latest revelations of 'improper behaviour' will have on Bush and his government? You guessed it - NO EFFECT, NONE WHATSOEVER!

As stated on many previous occasions by numerous contributors to this newswire the FAILURE in the U.S. is not of government, it is systemic and cultural; the failure is of the NATION! It is a people's failure; a lack of courage and moral outrage infects America.

Only a few decades earlier the population demanded JUSTICE AND ACCOUNTABILITY from government. The INDEPENDENCE of the American legal system MUST be RESTORED or the nation will be lost PERMANENTLY to gangsters, MURDERERS AND THIEVES.

The machinations of Bush and the neo-cons have been exposed countless times. Their FAILED PLANS to dominate the world and circumvent the democratic process via orchestrated wars are common knowledge today yet the criminals in government laugh and continue to treat the population with scorn and contempt!

However, final responsibility for government rests with the American people - the people's prerogatives are encoded in the Bill of Rights and American Constitution; documents that Bush views as "pieces of (toilet) paper." It's YOUR nation and heritage that is at stake - it is under attack and almost lost!
