

War criminal on honours list!

by dingo Monday, Jun 9 2008, 3:18am

national / injustice/law / commentary

Former Prime Minister and war criminal at large, John 'aluminium tubing' Howard is to receive Australia's highest civic honour, the Companion of the Order of Australia! Well, that about 'tears it' for this dingo. Think for one moment and ask yourself why and who would honour a man who attempted to destroy the Australian 'fair go' and traditional worker's rights. Howard implemented policies that have created the widest disparities in wealth distribution in the nation's history. Some banking executives enjoy salaries in the tens of millions ($35m) while average Aussies receive $45K for their efforts - hooray for Johnny, give him a medal, you mindless, moronic sheep! It's all any red-blooded Aussie can do to stop themselves strangling the little rodent on sight!

John Howard, lackey, liar and war criminal

Consider his biggest boast, his economic record; almost all of which was based on the resources boom. Any moron can preside over the raping of our natural resources by mining multinationals - the average Aussie was better off before the Howard government took office, FACT!

Furthermore, the nation's resources belong to every Aussie but the beneficiaries are the elites and CEOs; and fuck all dumb Aussie, slobs!

You deserve Rudd and Howard and every hardship that results from their incompetent and servile leaderships.

I could go on but its all been covered before, the people who choose these honours count on the public's mindlessness, so take it up the kyber then take it some more, you vacuum-heads!

Arrest Howard for his very obvious and easily proven war crimes - that's the reality not the con!

<http://www.bloomberg.com/apps/news?pid=20601081&sid=ayuiXbGgV7jQ&refer=australia>

