

Obama: an accurate definition

"A palliative (from the Latin palliare, 'to cloak') is a form of medical care or treatment that concentrates on reducing the severity of disease symptoms, rather than halting or delaying progression of the disease itself or providing a CURE"

Uncle Bilderberg Tom Obama

Nothing describes Obama better than the above definition. After Obama's disgusting servility to AIPAC and his attendance at the latest Bilderberg conference in Virginia, also attended by Hillary Clinton, any notion that Obama represents anything other than the status quo has been thoroughly obliterated. The longings and aspirations of the people have been BETRAYED by a smooth talking black contender chosen to appear as though he really is different!

Bilderberg and AIPAC speak louder than all the rhetorical niceties Obama's speechwriters can muster.

Australia has set the example for America. The Murdoch chosen Kevin Rudd displaced the loathed former PM only to betray the people and maintain the poisonous status quo. The people and nation have been betrayed, a fact the entire population is slowly learning. The current Oz leader was full of media manufactured appeal and rhetoric but all hope for change was soon dashed against the wall of betrayal.

I would state it again and again until it burns in the minds of ALL people everywhere - DEMOCRACY IS MAJORITY RULE BY REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT, as distinct from rule by minority ELITES! Have we got it now? It's a succinct and accurate definition. DEMOCRACY is NOT the government of minorities or commercial interests. Put another way, it is "government of the people, by the people, for the people" -- that definition should be familiar to all.

Now ask yourselves what Obama was doing attending the secretive meeting of the Bilderberg group? Unless he was taking down names for later arrest and trial, he clearly is a FRAUD and traitor to the MAJORITY of people.

America, prepare yourself for a major LETDOWN; defined as, "unhappiness caused by the failure of one's hopes, desires, or expectations."

Kevin Rudd was placed into office by the powers and so too 'turncoat' Barack Obama. Please read the definition of palliative once again and understand that the powers didn't come down in the last shower. They are acutely aware they need to place what appears to be the total opposite of Bush into power.

Take note America, the Transnationals and Financial corporations continue to rule Australia (not for much longer, I would add!) What will become of America if it continues to pursue its present course? Not a happy ending I'm afraid!

It may surprise many citizens to learn the foremost fear of the Founding Fathers was that commercial or other unrepresentative interests would hijack the nation/government. This is the primary reason they made provision for citizens to bear arms. They also made provision in the Constitution and Bill of Rights, for citizens to reclaim their DEMOCRACY in the event government failed to represent the will of the MAJORITY - Bush has been hovering on an approval rating of 30% for years; clearly a case for intervention!

Times have changed; nevertheless, the worst fears of the Founding Fathers have been realised in the form of the Bush/Cheney corporate controlled government.

The failure of the nation is clearly the failure of the people to ACT in accordance with the laws and provisions enshrined in the Constitution and other founding documents. If any nation loses its founding principles then it is lost indeed!

"We the people ..."
