Infamous member of the 'coalition of willing criminals,' John Howard -- a reprehensible LIAR, RACIST, WAR CRIMINAL, LACKEY and COWARD - has thrown his poisonous support behind the current leader of the opposition, Brendan 'super hornet' Nelson. The enmity between Howard and former treasurer Peter Costello, who is rumoured to be making a bid for the opposition leadership, is such that Howard would emerge from his rat hole to support Nelson and risk arrest for his complicity in the Haneef scandal.

Australian tragedy, Nelson and Rudd

Members of a hamstrung (at the moment) government inquiry into the Haneef scandal hope that Howard remains in circulation long enough to be indicted for collusion in the now known FABRICATED case against Dr. Haneef!

Serving AFP chief, Mick 'have another drink' Keelty and former immigration minister, Kevin 'totally inept' Andrews, have with Howard, a very serious case to answer. The whole nation is aware of the truth regarding the Haneef scandal; it's simply a matter of pipsqueak Kevin Rudd granting adequate powers to the inquiry for JUSTICE TO BE SERVED!

Two questions arise from Howard's arrogant and reckless gesture; how far can HE push his fast-disappearing luck and how desperate is Nelson to accept any 'assistance' from Howard. The negative baggage former leaders carry notwithstanding; Nelson needs Howard like he needs a hole in the head!

But please Johnny, stay in the public eye long enough for the TRUTH to seal your fate, you reprehensible, little, racist worm - the public is not as stupid as you think! Your only hope is inaction from serving PM, Kevin 'non-event' Rudd, who is too frightened to move in any direction. The compliant little bureaucrat is only able to take orders from the REAL rulers of Australia, the Macquarie Group and other corporate directors and CEOs - you spineless mob of no-hopers, Labor!

But a final question for former opposition leader, John Hewson, who doubted Costello had the "balls" to challenge for the leadership! Who has the smallest balls, Kevin Rudd or Peter Costello? Both pairs require a microscope!
