

Condi Rice: busy war whore

international / social/political / commentary

Armed with American slogans, metaphors, outright lies and palettes of US 'toilet paper' money for 'aid/loans' (bribes) US Secretary of State, Condi Rice, has never moved so fast! One minute Georgia, then Warsaw, Prague, Brussels then Baghdad at blistering pace! Rice has demonstrated -- if nothing else -- that she is able to move as fast on her feet as on her knees!

Rice with Polish FM -- peas in a pod!

Rice's frantic attempts to save the situation for her boss are not proving successful. Orchestrating the attacks on civilians in S. Ossetia was a monumental blunder; the Russian response reveals how easily things can change for America. Foreign relations are taking a cyclonic pounding and international relations are ready to fail; nonetheless, Bush is of the opinion that Rice is doing a "hekkeva job" for America and the Corporations!

Perhaps Rice's comments to the Iraqi PM deliver a clearer picture of the current situation. Responding to al-Maliki's continuing demands that US forces completely withdraw from Iraq, Rice offered "time horizons and aspirational goals," which in effect translates as, we're staying as long as we like you ungrateful, unwashed, Arab lackey!

Who knows where al-Maliki's burst of testosterone will lead his devastated, oil-rich nation? Perhaps the nation would have been better served by taking the case of American war crimes to the Hague and UN. Balkan leaders would no doubt join him with their own claims and EVIDENCE of US interference/covert interventions that resulted in thousands of deaths in the former Yugoslavia - an easily proven case today.

The LIES, collusion, complicity and crimes of Americans in high office would make for riveting viewing, a SPECTACLE of irresistible attraction!

Regardless of which national leader initiates legal action against the USA it is certain to occur, the rapidly changing geopolitical situation begs that outcome.

Imagine the now likely event of an oppressed nation calling for help from Russian and China, a perfectly legitimate and LEGAL prerogative of any sovereign nation – what then? Pre-empted at every turn, America would resort to its only advantage – as it sees it – the nuclear option! Never forget America thought it an advantage to withdraw from nuclear non-proliferation treaties! Why?

In the current state of play Russia is legitimately entitled to increase its attack potential on London, Paris, Rome, Warsaw and Prague – Czech and Polish leaders haven't yet realised that all those US bills can't be spent if you're dead! Both stand today as the most corrupt and mindless leaders in Europe, nevertheless, we must all accept responsibility for our actions.

There must be NO DOUBT whatsoever that Western targets would evade catastrophic consequences. The insane American strategy of provoking Russia and China MUST BE MET WITH UNFLINCHING RESOLVE AND THE THREAT OF ANNIHILATION – never doubt the lunacy of the American leadership.

The continental USA must be OBLITERATED! No 'joy' or peaceful discourse issues from the mouths of either presidential candidate; in fact they try to outdo each other with aggressive posturing and bellicose rambling.

Never forget the world was in relative peace until America decided to spread 'democracy' around the globe. I would suggest that Bush has no idea of the meaning of the term he uses often and with great abandon -- most often to veil the reality of his murderous thieving! DEMOCRACY IS MAJORITY RULE VIA ELECTED REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

Bush has maintained his approval rating at less than 30% for years; the MAJORITY constitutes the 70% that vehemently DISAPPROVE of his leadership – enough said.

Notice how the policies of Obama and McCain are converging, neither hopeful veers from the status quo set by the neocons. The USA today has no claim to anything democratic – its illegal and violent military interventions qualify it as a rogue and the most dangerous terrorist nation in the world today. Mad dogs must be shot for the good of the community.

Most specialists realise that provoking Russia demonstrates a very dangerous instability at the highest levels of American power. There is no avoiding the current urgent need to neutralise the rogue that threatens the entire world; no other nation has so readily applied the military option and created so much needless misery and hardship for so many innocent people.

White House lunatics have openly revealed their (Corporate) strategy for endless war, plunder and murder. Viewing continuing holocausts as viable 'solutions' is the height of criminality and psychopathology.

Launch before the 'mad dog' bites again!
