

No further proof required -- McCain, mad as a meat axe!

international / social/political / commentary

The mass media is loath to publish it and his handlers are attempting to smother it but it will stick in the pages of history like fly shit! McCain completed his acceptance speech with the intimation, "I have been 'ANOINTED' to 'SAVE' America in its hour of need," and he was serious! A textbook megalopara/schizo statement, ask any psychiatrist! Make no mistake, the "bomb, bomb, bomb Iran; I know how to win wars; I will fight in Iraq for 100 years; I'll follow Bin Laden to the gates of hell," is DAMAGED GOODS!

Dream Ticket

McCain was unable to contain his psychopathology on one of the most critical days of his campaign. Any first year psyche student would immediately identify his statement as classic psychosis - the man is nuts, pure and simple! But all is not lost he's the perfect choice; what better person to assume command after Bush? His NRA, secessionist, running mate has the biggest tits in the history of American politics, the perfect winning team for suck-cess in God damn, DEMENTED, fearful and repressed, America!

[Are we watching all this comrades? TIMING IS EVERYTHING; these people will stop at nothing to destroy Mother Russia!]

McCain also laid the entire blame for Saakashvili's CRIMINAL attack on S. Ossetia onto Russia! However, he - intentionally or otherwise -- spelled out that the 'battle' in the region is really for oil/gas/pipelines -- ENERGY! America should have considered the consequences of flouting international law and convention in the Balkans/Kosovo; the West set the precedent; they have very little to complain about today. Russia is merely following the lead set by America. It's purely by geopolitical chance that Russia got the better part of the bargain. You only have yourself to blame, 'Jethro!'

Western powers are planning a nuclear confrontation with Russia-China as I write. A nuclear war they imagine they can 'win.' Such is their addiction to money and power they are willing to risk everything in the vain hope they will retain their ill-gotten gains and life styles. It may soon be demonstrated on a GLOBAL SCALE that money really is the root of ALL EVIL. Let's not forget which nation formulated an ideology (capitalism) around money. Until recently the slogan, "In God(money) we trust," was printed on their currency(God)!

Only fools and Americans believe in 'free and fair democratic' elections today. The real powers ensure the final race is run by their 'ponies'/puppets. In the meantime the powers have purchased swathes of land in low target regions far from the US mainland; damn shame YOU consider America home!

Do not complain when the inevitable blinding flashes occur; it was YOU that allowed the criminal Bush regime to flout the Constitution and every civilised law and convention instituted since the Nuremberg trials. Should you be surprised that a nutter now contends for the nation's top job? It was YOU that allowed Bush to get away with MURDER!

You have no idea what your apathy has released! They have done their numbers; YOU, the nation and everything you value is EXPENDABLE! The beauty of life on earth is meaningless to the sick minds that have brought you continuous war/conflict since 1999 -- filthy profit at ANY COST! You will soon learn that their profit equals your ruin/demise

The war in Iraq has not been won; hundreds of EXTRA millions in dollars have been utilised to buy-off Sheiks and Warlords BUT for how long? What happens when the money dries up? The notion of a central democratic government is a joke in Arab culture - as it is in Afghanistan.

An idiot Australian politician recently referred to the "democratically elected government of Afghanistan, " in a feeble attempt to justify Australia's presence in the region. Ask any Afghani tribal warlord, Fitzzy, they'll tell you who really controls the country! You've never been good with the ball, mate!

John 'war criminal' Howard made a mull of manufactured crocodile tears (on camera) over the surrender of the 'Bali nine' to Indonesian authorities. The current Minister of Defence, a genuine Cessnock footy player, displayed equally inept dramatic skills yesterday in parliament. After updating the house on the condition of injured troops and attempting (unsuccessfully) to justify Australia's presence in Afghanistan, Defence Minister Fitzgibbon failed to inform the house of the clear correlation between Afghan citizens caged in dog pens and humiliated by Australian troops and the latest attacks on our SAS! If the minister took the trouble to read a job description of military service he may have realised that fake emotions are inappropriate and unwarranted in the circumstances!

Furthermore, our soldiers today are fully cognisant of the fact they fight wars for Corporations and Bankers; they die so Allan Moss can take home $135 million in severance pay!

Has it occurred to you political puppets that you live and breathe because OTHERS ALLOW IT? Think cocksuckers, who are the REAL trained specialists and who are the servile cocksuckers - all clear now, I hope so?

The sooner McCain takes government the sooner the exchange will occur, while it's not certain it should result in the end of the three superpowers, most of Europe and the capital cities of Australia - the price of slavery, Kevin! Every ICBM has at least 14 nuclear warheads more than enough to eradicate every capital city in Australia. But our servile politicians should be happy glowing in their graves knowing that all the nation's resources are safe for the taking! Does that help put some perspective on the real issues affecting Australia, you disgusting slaves?

Almost forgot, to whom did the statement, "threat in our own backyard" refer, Fitzzy? Perhaps another good reason to focus on OUR REGION, you fuckin' 'super hornet' lackey.

We're all pooping our pants, mate -- you couldn't find your dicks to take a piss, you've been trying for three fuckin' years, how embarrassing! The 'wire' is ours, as stated, as appropriated!

'We want McCain (Palin), we want McCain (Palin)' ... don't ya jus luv American politics?

Joel Fitzgibbon greets Bob Gates
