After his revealing address to an almost empty chamber at the UN, Kevin 'non-event' Rudd has taken Australian recognition to an all-time low in the international arena.

His predecessor, John 'aluminium tubing' Howard could never be accused of insignificance, his rabid right wing, racist, contractive, slavish (to America) and cynical policies ensured that he would be noticed by the world, but for all the wrong reasons! The Tampa crisis, deportation of citizens, illegal invasive warfare, rabid racism, which culminated in the victimisation of dark skinned Indian Doctor Haneef, surrendering Australian nationals to Indonesian authorities to face execution and allowing Transnationals and Corporate CEOs to dictate policy in the running of the nation, especially Allan Moss and his Macquarie Group!

Kevin Rudd, exactly!

John 'rodent' Howard will go down in history for all the wrong reasons, not least his shameless COWARDICE, but pipsqueak Rudd challenges Howard's failures and is determined to prove that he is easily able to become the worst PM in Australian history - and we all thought it would be impossible to beat Howard's despicable record!

Is it possible to be so insignificant and INCONSEQUENTIAL on the national and world stage? Never before has any PM achieved so little in so long but Rudd is known as the 'hands-off' PM - TOO SCARED TO HAVE A GO!

The international reputation Rudd has earned is well deserved. Murdoch accurately assessed the man as compliant and insignificant, the perfect choice for BIG business and the powers. A timid and frightened man who would do EXACTLY as told -- it's 'hands-off' all the way while Australia's wealth is pillaged and the environment raped at extraordinary speed by the Transnationals. Trillions of dollars in wealth is taken offshore while the population suffers hardships. Rudd, is ever ready to sell his children to thieving Gypsies. In South Australia BHP Billiton continues to pilfer billions of litres of the nations PRECIOUS high quality artesian water FREE OF CHARGE, notwithstanding South Australia suffers the greatest trauma from the abused Murray-Darling river system -- such is the 'metallic resolve' and 'will' of our fearless leader! Rudd allows the richest miner in the world FREE

WATER in a desert land - they can afford to pay Kevin, you gutless, little shit!

Of course Rudd is assisted in his perversions and failures by his no-hoper ministers, the most notable are Federal Treasurer Swan, Foreign Minister 'kneepads' Smith and Defence Minister 'super hornet' Fitzgibbon not forgetting deputy PM 'fish wife' Gillard who attempted to implement Stasi spying methods on Australian citizens - you wouldn't feed any of 'em, especially environment Minister Mr 'integrity' Garrett. Never before in the history of Oz have so many incompetents, cowards and losers achieved high office!

Rudd earned his international reputation as narcissist and gutless whimp at the outset; he failed to act on the NSW Coroner's report on the Balibo murders and failed to respond to an unforgivable, reprehensible attack by JI terrorist leader Bashir and his Bali bombers -- Rudd was too busy prancing on the world stage at the Bali climate summit to notice the derision and mocking comments he received.

But we should never forget that Murdoch handpicked Rudd for the job -- should common people continue to have high expectations after voting Labor?

Regardless of the futile and tragic attempts of the local media to support Rudd it's simply impossible to give a spine to a jellyfish. It is with great amusement that we constantly read headlines like Rudd "hails" or "applauds" this or that - face it Oz, it is of no consequence whatsoever, Rudd is the leader 'colonial' Australia deserves!
