Thousands of Georgian citizens poured onto the streets of the Georgian Capital, Tbilisi, on Friday protesting the failed policies of puppet president and buffoon, Mikheil Saakashvili. Economic hardship and the INSANE military provocation of Russia ensures that Saakashvili's days are numbered – his life may also be in jeopardy.

The East is now the undisputed powerhouse of the world and the people are asserting their rights and acting in their own best interests. Asian and European leaders have agreed to form a new international financial framework, which would free them from their dependence on the greenback.

After almost a decade suffering American vandalism and incompetence the world seems to have learnt its lesson.

In response to recent international developments America has unwisely chosen the path of contractionism and protectionism.

Based on comments from high profile US political insiders America may also be planning a covert operation to plunge the world into war – but I'm afraid it won't work, Uncle!

Any attempt by the US to precipitate, via any covert or overt operation, turmoil or conflict will result in a targeted attack on the continental USA and some Western European Capitals – be advised!

The jig is up, gentlemen; your woeful attempt at world domination failed miserably. Violent, destructive and ignorant policies have earned you the contempt any would-be conquering nation deserves!

The solution is not parading a lackey, Uncle Tom President to a much wiser world but to adopt EXPANSIVE and CONSTRUCTIVE policies for REAL CHANGE and reformation, which would necessarily include holding Wall St banksters and the Bush regime accountable for their criminal activities!

Mutual cooperation and mutual support, as has been demonstrated in Asia and some European nations ensure peaceful outcomes and solid growth. The entire world has tasted the bitter harvest of selfish American greed and the sociopathic aspirations of Zionists, cowboys and other assorted lunatics. That period in world history is OVER and the sooner sane Americans restore the Constitutional authority of their democracy, the sooner that nation will embark on a path to re-construction and positive re-engagement with the international community.

Arresting Cheney and his cohorts would send a clear message to the international community that America is serious about reform.
