The world is about to witness a political first - a stillborn presidency! Obama, by selling out on almost every promise and 'position' he had taken prior to revealing his marionette status, has earned the wrath of the people.

Who am I?

Dumb American Fuck's (DAFs) placed Bush in office for two terms and then predictably followed through by taking the bait and placing Obama in office; how does it feel, Jethro? [The substance on your face is not egg, it's 'custard!']

However, the penny has finally dropped and the TRUTH of American rulership, corporate crime and bankster gangsterism is now plainly visible from the outer reaches of the galaxy, though the view from Texas remains blurred! Nonetheless, the world is about to witness the first stillborn presidency in history! The Big (Obama) Sell failed almost as dramatically as the financial 'bailout' and 'stimulus' packages. Yet the hammer blow to the American head that all these related events create has not quite roused DAFs from their stupor!

As elite panic-metres begin to sound warnings and traditional ruling elites begin to fear for THEIR safety, desperate tactics become the order of the day. I would make it abundantly clear that these types have no regard whatsoever for any life other than their own, as will soon become apparent to all!

After generations of ruling the common herd, ruling elites have developed contingency plans for almost every threatening circumstance. Including orchestrating the most horrific loss of innocent life in order to save their own miserable hides.

In the event their minstrel show performer fails what do you suppose is 'plan B', do you remember? Joe Biden, Madeleine Albright and Colin Powell ALL clearly indicated that a major 'test' would occur soon after the presidential inauguration!

After the exposé of the anthrax letters, supersonic pigeons that 'downed' WTC7 and the phantom passenger jet that hit the Pentagon, expect anything but be assured it would have been brought to you by the same incompetent murderers that brought you 9/11, the anthrax letters and evaporating jetliners - only in America!
