Bush, divorced from reality to the end!

The entire world groaned when WAR CRIMINAL Bush insisted, in his last press conference, that he had served his country well and had done a “good job” as president - W-H-A-T!? Furthermore, Cheney supported Bush’s statements with his own divorced from reality, twisted version of history. It’s time for the handcuffs people! The credibility of the ENTIRE nation is at stake - the reality oriented WORLD is fast running out of patience!

What is wrong with you people over there? Bush, Cheney and almost the entire administration are CRIMINALS, by ANY DEFINITION of the WORD! Senior members of the Bush administration are guilty of the most heinous, premeditated crimes against humanity -- the Bush administration has a H-O-L-O-C-A-U-S-T to its credit; is there a more heinous crime?

Read the Geneva Convention one more time, people, before the world tires of your insanity and cowardice. Given America’s weaponry, the world is facing a singular option; it would be FORCED to apply the only remedy available in the circumstances - no more North America, finito, and good riddance to a nation of spineless shits and murdering nut cases!

Slave boy, Obama has made his position perfectly clear; he is INCAPABLE of pursuing the Bush administration for war and other crimes against humanity - what an utter tragedy for America!

In the prevailing circumstances the American people are LEGALLY EMPOWERED BY THE CONSTITUTION to take remedial action. The people of the world envy the US Constitution YET the spineless American people, with legal and viable options at their disposal, have proven they are not up to the task - what an utter tragedy and SHAME on the ‘brave’ people of America. Is it a surprise that criminals have hijacked government?

Of course it is known that not all Americans are demented, gullible, bible-bashing morons that allow themselves to be deceived and led by LYING criminals. Demographic demarcations based on literacy levels and intellectual competence clearly divide the nation into regions of viability. Should an entire harvest of good ‘fruit’ allow itself to be spoiled by the bad? I think not; there has never been a better argument for secession than the situation that prevails at present!

Cut the rot loose and allow it the opportunity to fully appreciate itself -- and hopefully learn from the experience. The levels of socio-intellectual competence that divide the USA are far too broad to bridge without shock-therapy! The most effective shock-therapy is (forced if necessary) SELF-CONFRONTATION!

Take note world; the above also applies to the USA as a whole - isolate it in every way until it either learns or implodes!
