

Obama's lack of integrity alienates world

by Kingfisher Friday, Jan 23 2009, 5:40pm

international / social/political / opinion/analysis

Allowing Bush, Cheney and others to go free is NOT an option!

Obama has alienated a world that believed his message of 'hope and change!' His FAILURE to pursue the many torturers and war criminals of the previous administration is perhaps the primary factor contributing to the massive disillusionment of the people.

The world now rightly perceives Obama as a tragic marionette, slave of the powers and expeditor of the status quo; his recent appointments of Mitchell and Holbrooke verify the fact.

The world is ACUTELY AWARE of the massive destruction and millions of innocent civilians killed by the inept tactics and policies of the Bush regime - the GUILTY MUST PAY!

The hopes and aspirations of the masses have been dashed on the rocks of established corruption and institutionalised criminality - it is clear a full scale Revolution is required to RESTORE AMERICAN DEMOCRACY! But alas the American people have lost heart and have become sheep led to the slaughter - an American tragedy in progress.

Yet the world is not so impoverished and will not fail to apply the appropriate remedy to a brazen terrorist, rogue and reprobate nation.