Still no solution to world crisis

Except for Roubini, Schiff and very few others, the world cannot seem to grasp the FACT the beast (capitalism) is DEAD -- long live inverted values and financial models based on theft, fraud and exploitation! The witch is dead, the witch is dead, the MAD ol' bad ol' witch is DEAD! And good fuckin' riddance!

Grab what you imagine is of value (not a lot actually) and RUN like the devil if you number in the corporate, executive, political, financial classes. Fair warning is here given.

Who would be able to manage or control angry mobs when the ENTIRE SORDID TRUTH of insider corruption is REVEALED? The current collapse was predicted (many times) on this site, not that recognition or 'credit' is sought. It 'pays' to be ahead of the game and the view from here reduces the spectacle to something akin to a circus of fleas or an ant farm. What a tiny, tragic group of no-accounts our leaders and 'knights of the realm,' TRULY are; see how they run!
