

Astounding!

Applying the KISS principle with American lips on the global arse!

Who would have thought that invaded peoples in Indo-China, Central Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and other regions would fight for their traditional lands, homes, families and cultural identities? And who would have thought that people threatened with subservience to foreign cultures and ideologies would emphatically reject wearing baseball cap headdress - absolutely astounding?

American genius, Dennis Blair

We are perhaps reminded of the earth-shattering knowledge that a completely unfair and inequitable economic paradigm based on fraud, exploitation, theft and PRIVILEGE FOR THE FEW failed and that common people would one day revolt when confronted with the flagrant double standards applied to elitist 'white' collar insider criminals -- $50 billion theft, house arrest -- in stark contrast to hapless youths JAILED for smoking marijuana! - what day is it in, JUSTICE FOR ALL, America, does anyone know?

We, the free world, should never forget that the obvious is never seen in America! An economy run on a valueless 'commodity,' DEBT/CREDIT, by SELF-SERVING ROGUES, was allowed to fester until it bankrupted the REAL WEALTH (built on labour and production) of the nation!

More astounding is the reality that the perpetrators of this economic fiasco are demanding billions in 'performance related' bonuses - these, 'let them eat cake' Bankster Aristocrats, are so far removed from the people they exploit they have lost all sense of fear; OR do they KNOW the American people are UNABLE to ASSERT their RIGHTS and demand that the LAW applies to ALL!

Americans are currently tolerating exactly the same thoroughly incompetent elites pursuing (attempting to resurrect) exactly the same failed paradigm - 'we' must maintain the structural integrity of UNJUSTIFIED PRIVILEGE under a new façade/veneer - how do you like our new ebony finish, madam?

America as we know is a land of geniuses; the current 'Director of National Intelligence,' now there's a title to get your head around, Dennis Blair, delivered his assessment of the current situation to the US Congress and you'd never guess what he assessed as the greatest threat to the world and US stability -- the US precipitated economic meltdown, who would have known? An absolutely astounding deduction!

I guess he managed to obtain and read an elementary school history book detailing accounts of the French Revolution and how the Dauphin and his wife lost their heads to the GREAT JOY of the abused people. That event was simply the first of many that toppled monarchies across Europe - the principal instigating factors, EXPLOITATION, INEQUITY and INJUSTICE! Furthermore, Dennis 'Einstein' Blair, cited recent social turbulence in Europe, Latin America and Central Asia to highlight his 'astute' observations - this guy actually demands to be paid for telling us 'the sky is blue;' we also noted that no REMEDIAL solutions were forthcoming! I would add that this man is Obama's top National Intelligence officer - the obvious question is begged!

I have nothing more to add except the future for America is written in iridescent ink! Mr Blair's final comment is extremely revealing of the national malaise, 'we're generally held to be responsible," Mr Blair said. What universe is that clown living in?

Take note world, America failed from the bottom up - its people failed themselves first; the nation had no choice but to follow!
