international / social/political / commentary

When it comes to incompetent, corrupt, cowardly pigs it's hard to beat Australia's own. I have direct experience with these cowardly, INCOMPETENT, scum. Five of the arseholes kicked the shit out of me for SIX HOURS while I was handcuffed and tied to a chair before threatening me with my life and then intimidating members of my family by stating that if I pursued them in court for THEIR CRIMINAL BEHAVIOUR, I would be found in an alley with a syringe in the back of my head! This they do to people with Masters Degrees in the Social Sciences and Advertising, Journalism majors - another example of police Public Relations genius!

After adopting a new identity I joined the services and received specialist training in KILLING and other effective 'niceties' - allegiance to my comrades in the services prevents me revealing all. However, I have no such allegiance to the PIGS or POLITICIANS -- be advised you reprehensible cocksuckers!

It would be 'lost' on the NSW police to re-state that a Taser is NOT a close quarters weapon, notwithstanding the idiot that fried himself is obviously 'trigger happy.'

Sydney residents remember the appalling and cowardly incident of five pigs opening fire and murdering a hapless mental patient in waist-deep water in the surf at Bondi beach - fortunately the entire incident was captured by the media for posterity.

Hopefully that footage would have been utilised in PIG training seminars; however, the recent murder of a 15yo youth by three armed police in Melbourne would indicate otherwise - Australia clearly must ENDURE more INCOMPETENCE and injury from our clowns in blue. [I could mention the Police State tactics at the APEC summit but I won't.]

However, never forget that responsibility for State Institutional INCOMPETENCE must be accepted by 'GOVERNMENT;' you know, those lackeys that are only capable of taking orders from FAT CATS that have recently destroyed the world economy!

Give me a fuckin' break!
