

U.S. gives kiss of death to Australian Labor Government

'Serving' Oz PM, Kevin '07', arrived in Washington yesterday to receive his pet on the head from the new White House team installed by the same status quo powers that installed and determined policy for the previous Clinton and Bush administrations -- 'things must change if they are to remain the same,' indeed!

Soldier blue, Fitzgibbon -- wanker in Afghanistan on U.S. orders!

Most Aussies couldn't believe their ears when they heard Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton, repeat a tired and DESPISED refrain (d  j   vu Howard and Bush) "America has no better friend than Australia" -- never mind Israel, we know it isn't true, but the show must go on! However, everything, including badly rehearsed and contrived lies, speak truth if you are trained to extract it. One TRUTH boiling beneath the primary discourse is DESPERATION - take note comrades, the U.S. is unravelling as I write!

It's the same tired floor show; servile Oz politicians on their knees with custard on their faces seeking approval from their handlers in Washington, and American puppet politicians doing the bidding of (now failed) BIG business interests. Ho hum, we prefer real challenges; nevertheless, third rate performances from Rudd, Obama, Clinton and Geithner are useful for first year students of social/political analysis - but how tragically TRANSPARENT, inept and abysmal their performances truly are! But what is really behind the desperate game of charades western leaders are playing at the moment?

We note from emails that astute readers have probably pre-empted the other screaming truth that seems to have escaped the attention of fifth rate analysts, commentators and journalists - yes, it's the discourse of (social) DISLOCATION that NOW issues from the halls of power - and that my 'luvlies' is the most critical TRUTH affecting today's real world!

Not since the decadent French Court of Louis the XVI and Marie Antoinette have we seen such a dissociative and dislocated, "let them eat cake" attitude from our ruling elites -- the strange 'thuds' you hear, ladies and gentlemen, are heads landing in baskets!

The ineptitude of politicians and the arrogance of CEOs and executives today actually exceeds that of the decadent 'aristocrats' and rulers of the past. The contempt for the public and the dissociative mentality exhibited by AIG executives and Wall St banksters will no doubt go down in history as the major factors responsible for the upheavals and social revolutions of the early 21st century! Yes gentlemen, I could spell it all out for you now but it would fall on dissociative, deaf ears! So we will continue to fine tune directions as YOU destroy yourselves!

I could elaborate further but the message has gone out (don't it just shit ya that we do it so openly these days?)

However, I would correct feeble attempts of elites to identify with the oppressed and abused masses; 'we are NOT in this together,' YOU are going down, WE are bringing YOU DOWN - there is nothing more certain than that!

On a personal note; you could have done it on a tidal wave of popular support, Barack, but YOU CHOSE to sell out and go with the enemy. Your place in history is also assured; the little black boy who didn't have what it takes - a stain on the memories of all the BRAVE, BLACK MEN who fought their oppressors and won their FREEDOM - you disgusting little lackey! Given the opportunity I would deal with you myself!

Also, do not kid yourselves, the fate of the entire Australian Parliament is in OUR hands, as are your bases on OUR SOIL! Rudd is an insignificant, no account, lackey, the entire nation knows it; however, (unconsciously) he assists in YOUR demise, but we wouldn't expect you to be aware of that fact!

If you wish to know what Aussies really think of mass murdering, criminal, America read the many, diverse posts to this website!
