

Those who cried “terrorism” (9/11-Anthrax) are now crying Swine Flu!

Memories of arch-criminal, Donald Rumsfeld, profiteering on “Tamiflu” immediately come to mind amidst the Swine Flu hysteria currently sweeping the globe - you will note in exactly the same mass-media-driven way as did the (Tamiflu-selling) NON-EVENT, bird flu hysteria!

Professional analysts are trained never to take anything at face value; however, today large sections of the population are taking a jaundiced view of government alarmist tactics - don't these people scare anymore? Well, yes but not with tired and previously exposed routines! Now think about it!

Governments that protect KNOWN WAR CRIMINALS and TORTURERS have a MAJOR CREDIBILITY PROBLEM as do leaders that implement the reverse of what they promised prior to taking office - thanks suckers! So it's hardly surprising these types no longer engender confidence in the masses! Drastic, alarmist strategies are now required to manage the population!

Managing the population ain't what it used to be, is it, Karl? There's a price to everything and short term players never anticipate long term consequences, such as disillusionment, cynicism and disenfranchisement!

In the prevailing climate of scepticism and disillusionment extreme measures must be taken in order to steer public consciousness in a particular direction. One of those 'measures' is the fear associated with highly contagious, potentially lethal, diseases!

Surprise after (Straussian) surprise, what do we have today saturating the mass media, hysteria inducing fear of a 'lethal' Swine Flu pandemic - accident? Not likely!

I have chosen one from many articles attempting to alarm the population. [There's just too much public pressure to arrest TORTURERS and WAR CRIMINALS; would someone get these people off my back and steal page one in the process!]

Note the tone of 'experts' offering their opinions:

“One expert says humans are unlikely to have much natural immunity to the new strain of flu ..” it's time to start pooping your pants, sheeple!

“A microbiology and immunology expert at James Cook University, Dr Graham Burgess, says it came from a pig and also has traces of a bird virus.”

"It's no big surprise, in fact what we knew is that we were overdue for a pandemic ...

It looks like this one has actually possibly been a pig that's been infected at some stage with a pig virus and a chicken virus and then perhaps later on been infected with a human virus and a pig virus, and it's grabbed genes from each of them and put them together to make a brand new virus."

A very good argument could also be made regarding highly mixed gene structures and LAB CULTIVATION, but we are offering no expert opinion nor are we proffering conspiracy theories; nevertheless it is a very unusual virus, once burnt .. as they say!

"Dr Burgess says if the virus reaches Australia, there will be little to stop it spreading. [That is a very big call for a scientist to make without incentive of some sort but far be it from me to make accusations - how many millions did Rumsfeld make with his shares in Tamiflu, again?]

"One of the things is this one probably has some of the genes that makes it efficient to grow in humans but the outside of the virus has got some genes that make it a little bit different to the viruses that we've used in our vaccines in the past or the people in Australia have experienced in the past." Some would say more evidence of LAB CULTIVATION/manipulation!

But you make up your own mind, link below.

The lying Oz government just announced it has 8.7 million courses of vaccine in store; that was quick considering the virus hasn't been properly identified/profiled yet! This entire event has a very familiar odour to it!

Desperate governments with no credibility wouldn't hesitate resorting to extreme tactics; 9/11 and the anthrax (military lab) letters proved that! The virus may indeed be real and very dangerous but few believe it occurred spontaneously!

I hope everyone has noticed that demands to prosecute known TORTURERS are now OFF the front pages!
