

After REAL leaders are eliminated/assassinated, enter the PUPPET brigade!

Have you ever wondered why or how imbeciles, narcissists, psychopaths and assorted LACKEYS make it to positions of national leadership in today's world? It wasn't always like it is now. A spate of assassinations - most notably the Kennedys and Martin Luther King, in the 60's -- saw truly independent thinking and capable leaders eliminated by the same powers that brought you the Gulf of Tonkin 'incident,' the attack on the USS Liberty, escalated Vietnam War, Balkanisation, Weapons of Mass Deception, colour coded (branded) revolutions, probably 9/11, definitely the anthrax letters, pre-emptive war, plunder, civilian HOLOCAUSTS, State Terrorism, deprivation of liberty, TORTURE, erosion of civil/democratic liberties, domestic surveillance, economic collapse, Swine (media distraction) Flu, and the list goes on!

Kevin 'bereft' Rudd

Now consider the national leaders we've had recently, George 'genius' Bush, John 'trembling' Howard, 'lush' Yeltsin, 'poodle' Blair and the rest - to a man/woman, all seriously DEFICIENT or suffering a serious behavioural problem.

Consider also how traditional left political parties have become conservative -- in the U.S. and Australia both major parties now compete for the 'privilege' of safeguarding the CONSERVATIVE Status Quo!

The result of this radical shift to the right of politics is that millions of people around the globe have been left without a representative voice - a situation BEGGING to be exploited!

Without a vibrant political opposition adversarial politics has become a feather fight between participants suited for the task!

Western nations once had distinctive political characters, today, Western nations are plagued by a curious political homogeneity; political 'leaders' all seem to be reading from the same script! None it seems are able to arrive at solutions tailored for their specific cultures and needs; instead leaders from London to Washington are singing the same orchestrated 'tune!'

The Australian PM, Kevin 'custard' Rudd, is a known narcissist, show pony, Christian conservative, bureaucrat and philistine who, consistent with his genus, lacks vision and creative thought. [Creatively] impoverished, Rudd, modelled himself on the former arch-conservative PM, John Howard. Both men boasted their fiscal/economic conservatism -- notwithstanding the fact that Howard left the nation with a $630 BILLION DEBT!

The "finely tuned racing car" economy of Howard turned out to be a jalopy hiding behind a glitzy duco!

On orders from Bankers and Washington, Howard artificially stimulated (grants) the local NON-PRODUCTIVE housing market and created a U.S. replica 'house of cards economy,' just waiting to collapse! Howard also presided over unprecedented disparities and raises in executive remuneration, after all, the people responsible for destroying the global economy required incentive! COLLAPSE was assured and as every first year economics student knows, economies that run on CREDIT/DEBT without a STRONG production base to absorb debt ARE DOOMED TO FAIL! That is not rocket science yet it still managed to evade the best economic minds in the country. Historians view that 'oversight' as a measure of the incompetence of government and its economic advisers.

In view of the hundreds of billions extracted from the nation's resource wealth, Howard nevertheless managed to end his tenure with a $630 BILLION national DEBT, unforgivable! Perhaps that is the reason no-talent former treasurer, Peter Costello, does not make a serious bid for the leadership of his party - he knows he has nothing to offer the Australian people except another 'finely tuned' load of shit!

I need not emphasise that crippling DEBT resulting from IMPRUDENT SPENDING was/is the primary cause of the global economic meltdown. In full view of the causative factors of economic catastrophe, what are Western leaders doing to remedy the situation today? SPENDING like drunken sailors, of course; a 'cure' worthy of a mad hatter!

Rudd has embarked on the wildest spending spree in Oz history; $20B give-away to citizens, $43B fibre optic communications plan; but his latest splurge defies reason; hundreds of billions in defence spending, which is guaranteed to spark a regional arms-race and plunge the nation into a debt from which it may never emerge - it seems Rudd forgot to read how the IMF and World bank fucked third world nations with crippling debt!

China, largest Oz bonds holder and America, supplier of premium priced but sub-standard military hardware, stand to clean up - everyone wins except Australian, one can only pity Rudd, the most bereft Australian PM in history!

Someone should inform our servile PM that it was IMPRUDENT and RECKLESS SPENDING that destroyed the world economy - the consequences of Rudd's actions will be profound and severe, the nation will never recover from this latest insane, ill-advised and ill-considered spending spree.

Australia will never be the same again, unless of course patriots who refuse to allow the nation to be sold into bondage INTERVENE!
