

Obama: early onset Alzheimer's or a moron in 'Gorky Park'

I nearly choked on my coffee perusing the newswire this morning; the offending headline read, "*Obama urges Russia not to interfere in neighbouring states!" (Emphasis added). Either 'Captain Ebony Smooth' has taken leave of his senses or his handlers are related to Rip Van Winkle! Need I remind banjo-playing, Americans and their tap-dancing black puppet President that AMERICA is the WORLD'S LEADING MEDDLING NATION! How would YOU define the US led bombing campaign on Yugoslavia and the subsequent theft of Sovereign Serbian Territory (Kosovo)? Reducing a single Balkan nation to a number of tiny, powerless, totally dependent, statelettes could not be described as 'interference' by any stretch of the imagination, nah!

Obama

Intoxicated by the Balkan campaign, the US illegally invaded and occupied Iraq, killing one million civilians in the process, but that ain't INTERFERENCE is it? Along the way we had the Georgian and Ukrainian colour revolutions, the result of US agents splashing hundreds of millions in US dollars on pro-Western puppets and factions!

The Tibetan attacks on the Beijing Olympic torch, directly after Bush awarded a gold medal to the Dalai Fraud had nothing whatsoever to do with 'interference,' did it Baa' rack?

More recently we had the failed cyber revolution in Iran -- after $400 million in US funds and numerous US-trained agents infiltrated and did their dirty work for Uncle 'we never interfere' Sam! I'm not altogether convinced that the latest - as I write -- Uighur rebellion in North Western China is independent of US cyber interference, but we'll let that one go for now to concentrate instead on South America! For Pete's sake don't mention (American interference in) Latin America! We were assured by the best White House advisers and consultants that the masses were only capable of remembering events three weeks past, mum's the word, ssshh!

Whatever it is they put in the water that so efficiently empties American craniums, I want some! My stash only enhances my mental faculties -- irritating, isn't it, slave boy?

I refer readers to the (linked) article by Stephen Lendman; it clarifies once and for all, exactly which nation interferes and meddles most in the affairs of other nations.

[Give us a break, you paranoid black puppet - according to the newswire Obama refused to dine with his Russian hosts. FEAR and paranoia seems to come with the lying territory, Baa'raack - you tragic, pathetic, brazen HYPOCRITE!]
