

The measure of a scurrilous Media Mogul

international / mass media / commentary

Amid substantiated reports that Rupert Murdoch's 'journalists' illegally accessed the voice mails and other private data of citizens in the UK, mandatory internet censorship in Australia proceeds undeterred; though it is NOW clear that the original excuse, 'child porn,' is a Trojan horse allowing a host of other sites, peer file sharing, and adult GAME sites, to be filtered! The real agenda -- stemming losses to Murdoch's Entertainment and Media Empire -- should now be apparent to everyone. Murdoch's SORDID CHARACTER is revealed by this latest scandal, notwithstanding his membership in the CFR and secretive Bilderberg group. Take note Oz, this is the man that dictates policy to Australian politicians! Take a good look at Murdoch's servants, Rudd, Swan, Smith and Conroy, and then try to imagine these lackeys with spines - impossible!

Murdoch, straight as a dog's hind leg!

Murdoch's strategy became evident when faithful servant, Communications Minister Stephen Conroy, ADDED an ambiguous new category to the 'child porn' filter, "unwanted (by Murdoch) content!" None of which, to date, has any connection to child porn; that 'development' alone should have exposed the political ruse!

Industry professionals and analysts were aware from the start that child porn was merely an excuse to capture a wider range of sites in the filter. We would again emphasise that the sickos engaged in child porn use sophisticated and advanced methods to circumvent filters and detection by police. Occasionally police make huge busts of paedophile rings and gain vital knowledge of their advanced methods of avoiding filters and detection! The point I make is that average users have no such knowledge and that Conroy's filter would be circumvented before it is even deployed, which leaves average users at the mercy of those people who will DECIDE what information is fit for us poor, helpless, dummies to access!

Paedophile rings are known to have industry specialists and police as members! I hope YOU get the point that Conroy's/Murdoch's filter is a business strategy NOT what it is purported to be. Further proof is furnished by a report from Human Rights Group, Save the Children, which stated that mandatory censorship would actually increase the risk to children as it lulls parents into a false sense of security.

Traditional methods have been most successful to date in busting child porn rings - broad range filters, proposed for Australia, only make matters worse BUT they do assist media moguls in stemming business losses; did you imagine for a minute that a man (Murdoch) known for his brazen lying and propaganda – Iraq War resulting in one million civilians killed -- could care less for you and your family? Wake up Oz and throw Rudd and his lackey government out on their servile ears [the opposition serve the same forces so if you must vote then VOTE INDEPENDENT! BREAK the hold criminals, LIARS and hypocrites have on our society, once and for ALL!]

The double standards of media elites becomes evident:

As Oz prepares to install Murdoch's filter the U.S. calls on China to "Drop Mandatory Internet Filtering!"

The public are not supposed to notice these glaring contradictions and double standards, you see, elites regard the public as totally manageable, mindless, expendable, slaves -- if that is NOT YOU then disseminate this article to all concerned citizens, parents and free-thinking men and women.
