

Competence and good governance are required Mr Rudd, NOT more Laws!

Faced with Real issues, Rio Tinto exec arrest, Balibo justice, water polluting Uranium/BHP mining etc, the show pony PM of Australia, Kevin 'photo shoot' Rudd, opts for diversion – creating more laws -- rather than addressing and dealing with problems head-on! It's a matter of COMPETENCE, the principal quality lacking in Oz government today!

The local media is awash with examples of INCOMPETENCE and gross failures at almost every level of Government in Australia – it must stop, it must cease here and now! 'Rout the Rot' and restore the nation to its former functional state. The DELETERIOUS and subversive effects that lackey politicians Howard and Rudd have had on the nation must be RECTIFIED!

Howard introduced numerous draconian laws to Australia but failed to address the nation's critical issues – it was all an exercise in distraction and social manipulation; outmoded, 'one-trick pony' games that Rudd's advisers continue to play! Distraction doesn't 'cut it' any longer, which seems obvious to everyone except Rudd and his useless advisers!

I would add that the entire western world has wizened up considerably since all the LIES, CRIMES and DECEITS of previous conservative governments, Cheney/Bush/Blair/Howard, have been EXPOSED!

The question that must be asked of Rudd and his useless ministers is WHY play feeble games of distraction, avoidance and diversion when addressing and dealing with problems offers the only path to viable solutions? The answer is painfully clear, Rudd and his useless government are INCAPABLE of effective governance, as Rudd's appalling Rio Tinto, Balibo, Jakarta bombing intelligence and BHP water pilfering and pollution FAILURES clearly indicate!

It has reached the stage where politicians from Obama to Rudd are no longer able to speak for fear of releasing a floodgate of contradictory information and exposing themselves as the HYPOCRITES, liars and puppets they really are!

The CURE is simple, restore REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACIES THROUGHOUT THE WESTERN WORLD, never again vote for major (puppet) parties – the people have had enough of lies and manipulations at their expense. The banking and financial DEBT based system is now exposed as a SHAM; private bankers print money from air in order to indebt the WORLD in their webs of EXPLOITATION and DECEIT, while THEY grow FAT and RICH on the misery of others!

'Killing a banker a day keeps disparities and recessions away,' may prove to be a popular slogan in the near future!

DEMOCRACY is defined as majority rule, NOT minority rule via bought, puppet politicians incapable of finding their dicks to take a piss!

WE ALL KNOW WHAT WE MUST DO!

Report from 3 News follows:

Australia plans tougher counterterrorism laws

Australia will consider creating a new crime of inciting violence based on race, religion or nationality as part of a review of the nation's tough counterterrorism laws, the government said.

Attorney General Robert McClelland told a security forum that a package of draft changes to the nation's security and counterterrorism laws will be released for public discussion in the coming weeks.

"A range of reforms will be put forward for consultation including seeking public input in relation to an offence of inciting violence against an individual on the basis of race, religion or nationality," according to a transcript of McClelland's speech released by his office on Wednesday.

The new law would expand existing legislation that outlaws inciting violence against groups and would increase opportunities for prosecutions.

The review is the first overhaul of Australia's counterterrorism regime since Prime Minister Kevin Rudd's centre-left government was elected in late 2007.

It was planned before seven people, including three Australians, were killed last week in terrorist suicide bombings in two Jakarta hotels.

Lawyers and civil liberty groups have condemned as draconian many of the tough new measures introduced by Australia's previous centre-right government following the al-Qaeda attacks on Washington and New York on September 11, 2001.

The measures include powers to detain people without charge and to force suspects to wear electronic manacles that enable police to monitor their movements.

Lawyer Jim Kennan, a former state attorney general, said Australia's counterterrorism laws were already too sweeping.

"I don't think there are examples that have been demonstrated here or overseas where the terrorist laws aren't strong enough," Kennan told Australian Broadcasting Corp. radio.

"Rather the concern is that in some cases ... they have led to injustices," he added.

Robert Stary, a defence lawyer with experience in counterterrorism law, said some laws should be repelled, including those that allow authorities to detain suspects to prevent a terrorist attack.

He said the laws made Australia a hypocrite, which criticized China for holding Australian mining executive Stern Hu without charge on suspicion of espionage.
