Bitter Fruit

It's really very simple those who hate, kill and destroy are easily identified and located;
simply follow the trail of corpses.
The millions of innocent dead; including thousands of children killed and maimed in the name of 'peace' and 'democracy' [excuses for PLUNDER, murder and destabilisation] cannot be ignored or wiped from the pages of reality/history.

The greatest weapons these criminals possess (upon which all their other weapons depend) are fear and hatred!

We LOVE, only - it is more than sufficient to prevail against them!

We are ONE.

[Someone stated the obvious thousands of years ago - "By their fruits (not their lies) you shall know them!"

I cannot improve on the simplicity, accuracy and clarity of that statement.]

Peace.
