Regardless of methods of analysis or the opinions and deductions of all the think tanks and geniuses there is no escaping the conclusion that even a child could draw. Peace and Love are the solutions for the ills that beset our world (and ourselves.)

The message of Peace, Love and Unity is fundamental to all the major religions. This message can be found in all cultures and periods throughout history, yet the irrefutable and obvious seem to escape us in the present age.

As options, it would seem that Peace and Love present as the most difficult and unrealistic choices; however, there are no other guaranteed solutions.

Nobody needs to be taught Peace and Love - we are born with these qualities. It should therefore be a simple matter to realise our options and make our choices.

Fools state the obvious while the greatest minds of our time lead us to destruction with far more 'sophisticated' strategies.

Peace, Love and best wishes to All.

We are ONE
