

Three Criminal Puppet Presidents

Three civilian killing, overtly criminal US Presidents have today formed a triumvirate of 'aid relief,' and what a gut-turning (fraudulent) sight they make! Regardless of the desperate attempts by the Corporatist mass media to portray these mass murderers as benevolent human beings, history and recent memory paints a very different, blood-drenched picture!

Obama, Clinton and Bush

These men represent the uninterrupted continuity of US WAR policy from the Balkans to Afghanistan, proving without doubt that today's Presidents are merely front-men for Corporatist ruling elites.

With the notable exception of Johnson's and Nixon's civilian killing record in Indo-China, Clinton, Bush and Obama have more innocent blood on their hands than all the previous US Presidents combined! History remains unaffected by media hype, myth-making and attempts at revisionism.

Who is able to forget the 'tranquil' years of 'world peace' under Cheney and Bush and the civilian holocaust they inflicted in Iraq? Or Clinton's embargo that killed 500,000 innocent Iraqi children by blocking essential medical supplies. Or Obama's record breaking request for hundreds of billions of dollars for the Pentagon and ongoing WARS? Given time Obama will no doubt equal, if not surpass, the 'achievements' of his sociopathic predecessors!

These men have the (fresh) blood of innocents dripping from their hands and no amount of media distraction is able to wash their murdering hands clean.

Psychopaths are incapable of humanitarian concern; the 'charity' offered Haitians masks strategic ulterior motives, of that we can be sure! Consider Obama's escalated Drone warfare where approval is sought prior to launching deadly hellfire missiles on an acquired target in the midst of dozens of innocent civilians. YES, civilians are murdered CONSCIOUSLY by the psychopathic USA. Drone warfare alone is an indefensible war crime yet these men are paraded before us as saviours -- it surely is impossible to bear such flagrant criminal arrogance and effrontery without paying a high soul-destroying price -- such is the nature of decline in America.

Is it an indication of moral integrity or sincerity to kill MILLIONS of civilians without a second thought and then offer 'humanitarian assistance' -- YOU tell me? Clearly, other motives are involved. If nothing else the USA has proven beyond all doubt that it cares little for innocent human life. There will be hell to pay, of that America can be assured.

"Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

Peace.
