

US Policy: 'on the nose' more than ever international / social/political / opinion/analysis

In badly co-ordinated policy and propaganda presentations, reminiscent of US intelligence agency bungles, Secretary of State Mrs Clinton presented a speech extolling the virtues of uncensored freedom of expression in the digital world while her fearless, corporate puppet leader Obaa'ma implemented what is termed, 'Cognitive Infiltration;' which is a strategy designed to directly interfere and subvert individuals or groups deemed to be 'conspiracy theorists,' (CTs) notwithstanding Clinton's inferred claim that conspiracy whackos have as much right to free expression as anyone else, Barack!

The fact that Obama and his advisors regard these wobbly 'theorists' as a threat speaks more about administrative incompetence, CONTRACTIONISM and White House paranoia than it does about the so-called 'conspiracy threat!' It's a wonder government officials haven't attempted to link CTs to al-Qaeda, but given enough time they probably will! [Soon Walt Disney's sorcerer's apprentice will be banned; after all, Mickey Mouse is depicted performing magic!]

Of particular interest is the broad definition White House paranoid whackos have given to so-called 'conspiracy theorists,' a group that has traditionally existed on the fringes of rationality and reason for centuries. According to the official description a conspiracy theory is "an attempt to explain an event or practice by reference to the machinations of powerful people, who have also managed to conceal their role." -- Cass Sunstein, 2008. According to that definition a CT is anyone that believes government is influenced or controlled by sinister, external, self-serving interests, like Washington lobbyists and special interest groups!

After President 'Hope and Change' introduced "indefinite preventive detention," a watershed moment in America's RACE to a TOTALITARIAN State, we can expect anything, none of it good I would add. Nazis Bush and Cheney are put to shame by Obama's new thought crime law!

So let's drop the pretence and just admit the US is spiralling uncontrollably toward a Totalitarian State. How simple it would be (for those sinister forces) to utilise right wing extremist 'Teabaggers,' led by Sarah Palin, in their push to institute a Totalitarian State! Furthermore, in view of Obama's and Clinton's disappointing time as puppets in office, the people would be begging for an authoritarian government! Too easy, or have I let the pre-empted 'cat out of the conspiracy bag?'

However, everything comes at a price and a totalitarian America would undoubtedly attract an international nuclear response - the sooner the better, as it is clear where America is heading!

Compare the Clinton-Obama contradictions and hypocrisies for yourself:

"Some countries have erected electronic barriers that prevent their people from accessing portions of the world's networks. They have expunged words, names and phrases from search engine results. They have violated the privacy of citizens who engage in non-violent political speech. These actions contravene the Universal Declaration on Human Rights, which tells us that all people have the right "to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media regardless of frontiers. "With the spread of these restrictive practices, a new information curtain is descending across much of the world." [Clinton is referring to AUSTRALIA, China and other nations that promote CENSORSHIP.]

from the Obama 'camp':

"[W]e suggest a distinctive tactic for breaking up the hard core of extremists who supply conspiracy theories: cognitive infiltration of extremist groups, whereby government agents or their allies (acting either virtually or in real space, and either openly or anonymously) will undermine the crippled epistemology of believers by planting doubts about the theories and stylized facts that circulate within such groups, thereby introducing beneficial cognitive diversity."

The White House official who co-ordinated the almost simultaneous release of these two polarised views must have been trained by the person that planned JFK's absurdly exposed route through Dallas! O, would that statement qualify me as one of those 'CTs'?

What does the US stand for, Hillary? Domestic surveillance, extraordinary kidnapping, water torture, Preventative 'thought crime' Detention, Corporate rule, etc etc! Watch your mouth, HYPOCRITE!
