

Why do we bother?

The short answer is, 'we don't!' Endless discussion and irrelevant discourse relating to our political leaders only serves to confuse and distract the population away from DEALING with the most unrepresentative, undemocratic governments in world history.

A good case in point is the Oz PM, Kevin Rudd, known internationally as a compliant Washington lap dog, servile to Corporate and mass media interests and a pathological narcissist obsessed with his personal image. This man does not govern in the nation's best interests, HE TAKES ORDERS and serves minority interests, no secret! In return for services rendered, media magnates/plutocrats/oligarchs support their chosen (obedient) lap dogs and errand boys - Barack Obama is perhaps the quintessential example of this new breed of servile, puppet politician - he is a TOTAL FRAUD, LACKEY, murderer and LIAR most foul! [And we are NOT required to tolerate it!]

In the interests of mass media moguls and ruling elites desirous of hiding their true role in the nation's affairs, former and current Oz PMs Howard and Rudd were ordered to implement REGRESSIVE, totalitarian CENSORSHIP in Australia; if the wholesale rapping of the nation's resource wealth by Corporatists was aired nightly on the mass media - as was the Vietnam War -- the people would be outraged and doubtless take action to protect their nation against rogues, parasites and thieves. Brazen war criminals would no doubt also be hauled into court and tried for their crimes against humanity. These facts are 'givens' in today's REAL Orwellian world.

The particular issue I wish to address, as a searing example of information management by vested interests, is the ABSURD mass media claim that Rudd's implementation of (CFR member) Murdoch's CENSORSHIP policy would not cost the incumbent PM votes at the next election - Hitler's infamous adage applies, when lying tell whoppers, the moronic masses are more inclined to believe BIG LIES rather than little fibs. Legal inaction in relation to State terrorism, ILLEGAL DETENTION, TORTURE, MASS MURDER and ILLEGAL WARS, proves the point!

The mass and other media, I'm sorry to say, is running with stories that Rudd, come election time, would hardly be affected by the implementation of REGRESSIVE CENSORSHIP policies! That completely fabricated and 'supported' by tortured stats story, if repeated often and with increasing emphasis as we approach the elections, would no doubt convince a large percentage of the population that it's ok to vote for the people that do not have our best interests at heart and to fear those that do! That is how the game is played these days, and no attempts to hide those facts are made -- cards are OPENLY dealt from the bottom of the deck, which serves to further 'stun' and shock into apathetic submission/paralysis a debt-flogged, whipped-dog population.

The solution for ruling interests is simple if not crude. Why bother with sophisticated costly charades; just unceremoniously fuck 'em straight up the arse and tell 'em, via the secondary (sub-text) discourse, to grin and bear it - ROFL -- it's just a walk in the park, dummies, and you deserve everything you get.

Yes, we know!

However, as ruling interests are also doubtless aware, a growing number of discontented citizens oppose the criminals that have hijacked our democracies. This socially aware group has no illusions and requires no assistance; they OPENLY advertise Asymmetry as the vital leveller in today's war against UNrepresentative democracies. Perhaps unrepresentative politicians may soon find it necessary to invest in body-armour - too easy, ANYTIME, ANYWHERE, the (attack) advantage is ours; ain't that a shame, you vile scum!

ANONYMITY is POWER, never forget it! It's far from over; in fact, it has only just begun.

We are ONE.
