

OVERT Criminal State - today's America

Today the USA OPENLY commits war crimes (daily) and ARROGANTLY flouts dozens of international laws and conventions -- its 'new' regressive, primitivistic ideology is simply, we are taking it ALL, 'stop us if u can!' Well, we can -- at HUGE cost -- but there comes a time when OVERT criminality, international vandalism, from the largest PIG at the trough becomes too much to tolerate, especially in consideration of aggressive moves to open a first strike advantage on the only two nations capable of defeating CRIMINAL America in an open conflict -- again I state clearly, at HUGE cost, this is a considered piece not some thoughtless rant!

'Hell bent' is the most accurate description of America today, it shows no signs of altering its nihilistic course; the critical factor for the civilised world is when to strike, as it is clear that all civilised appeals have been ignored!

The United States of America will be no more, totally and completely OBLITERATED -- FINITO and good riddance to an obscene, barbaric nation inhabited by PLANET RAPING, civilisation destroying, SICK, greedy PIGS and a terrified, useless and clearly retarded population!

It is apparent to all that America cannot successfully wage man to man, land based wars, a bunch of rag-tag tribesmen have successfully defended -- over eight long years -- against the greatest military power the world has ever seen, so much for the myth of 'superpower!'

Faced with this reality the US has opted for more imprecise forms of remote-controlled warfare, the robots and 'drone' (aptly named) flying machines that kill countless civilians daily in numerous countries around the world. Bleeding heart appeals to corrupted International Courts and impotent Laws are a waste of time, as is clearly proven daily by America's CONSTANT and OPEN criminal activities -- the USA remains the world's leading civilian killing -- TERRORIST -- nation with a tally the rest of the world put together cannot match; an appalling FACT!

In view of ongoing OVERT criminal pursuits and America's current policy direction, the civilised world is left with little CHOICE but to either acquiesce to an ideology of rape, pillage and pollution that would see the planet devastated, denuded and probably unable to support mammalian life or a horrific nuclear exchange that would see less damage in the long term than if America succeed in its clearly INSANE ambitions!

The current course and ideology of criminal America leaves very little doubt as to future determinations. Regardless of the analytic methods or approach it becomes clear that the rogue must be stopped, sooner rather than later!

Based on population concentrations and numbers, an obliterated Western Europe and North America would be unable to recover while regions in Africa and Asia would continue.

Unlike China and Russia the USA has consciously embarked on a destructive, brute-force CRIMINAL course of appropriation rather than civilised (business/trade) and a sustainable future.

It is regrettable it has come to this but the survival of humanity depends on the total and complete DESTRUCTION of the CRIMINAL USA and its few allies.

Pure necessity!
