US/NATO war on children

Dictionaries define "sentience" as the ability to 'perceive and FEEL;' this characteristic is supposedly specific to humanity but I'm not so sure!

Marines 'bailing up' children

I recently had the profound displeasure of viewing some photographs of children mutilated by AMERICAN missile and air attacks in Afghanistan – I WAS APPALLED to see a nine year old girl with one arm blown off at the shoulder – her sad eyes begging the question, WHY?

After viewing more photos of children and innocent CIVILIANS blown to bits, MURDERED by American Corporate interests, I definitely qualified as a sentient being -- unlike the vile beasts that man VDUs and hand-grips that remotely launch missiles at innocent Afghani children from mainland USA. These 'people' then go home for fuckin' dinner after a 'good' days work at the 'Agency!'

The human genus of 'American' clearly does not possess all the qualities that make the rest of us SENTIENT HUMAN BEINGS! These people are SICK and present a DANGER to HUMANITY (and the planet) as their MURDEROUS HISTORY -- four million innocent peasants mercilessly 'carpet-bombed' in Indo-China and one million innocent civilians slaughtered, notwithstanding over five million people displaced, in Central Asia -- indicates.

Humanity has strived for centuries to achieve what America takes pride in destroying – everything that distinguishes us from the wild beasts of the field is compromised by the USA. By the way, did you know these psychopaths are offended by my graphic language but INFANTICIDE they tolerate – SICK, SICK, SICK is their name!

With the amount of information available on the net and via public libraries etc, no excuses exist for a population that tolerates this type of behaviour from their criminal leaders and psychopathic military.

We imagined the low points of human history ended with the deaths of Adolf Hitler and Joe Stalin – not by a long shot, TODAY, CORPORATIST AMERICA is doing everything it can to make insignificant the gruesome legacy left by the above two psychopathic mass murderers. Heartless, INSENTIENT, corporate controlled America has proven it will stop at nothing to satisfy its insatiable hunger for everything it perceives to be of 'value' - REGARDLESS of legal and/or sovereign ownership rights.

Well, could you really blame those responsible for the inevitable nuclear detonation that is certain to occur on American soil? Why do they hate us indeed?

I was offered a large amount of money to write the above for an anonymous client (CIA?) but fuck it, some things are more important than all the money in the world; can YOU determine why and to what end 'someone' would have me write and publish this piece in the alternative press? It shouldn't be too difficult to deduce in view of the latest news re: Iran and justifying a possible nuclear strike and MORE civilian murders.

[The Courts at the Hague, don't make me laugh!]
