

To Catch a Psychopath

Catching psychopaths requires not only the ability to 'think' like a psychopath but also the ability to behave as one - being careful to direct all such behaviours to psychopaths only! Unfortunately there are no other effective means by which to apprehend, contain or 'nail' these evil criminals.

Barack Obama

Consider the fact that today more high profile mass murderers, rogues and criminals WALK FREE than ever before! I refer of course to Tony Blair, Bush, Cheney, Rice, Perle, Wolfowitz, Greenspan, Bernanke, Howard, Rudd etc. We know them all; this is a new century one in which psychopaths revel.

However, these sick bastards all have one thing in common, their WEAKNESS/VULNERABILITY. None have been combat trained or are physically able to protect themselves. Their day to day lives offer numerous opportunities for specialists and others - make no mistake, these people are easily (permanently) stopped!

Weigh the 'mercy and compassion' Blair and his ilk displayed for the millions they are responsible for murdering in Iraq and Central Asia against your moral code and personal values and then consider an action YOU would take to remedy the situation.

Consider also popular media magazine pictures/presentations/distractions depicting the Obama family engaged in pleasant family pursuits in the 'rose garden' and understand that only hours before Barack approved more criminal Drone attacks that kill countless INNOCENT women and children. That FACT makes every picture of Michelle and daughters, GROTESQUE!

A single operative could bring the REALITY of Obama's criminal actions to the breakfast tables of all US citizens simply by exercising exactly the same heartless consideration for HIS family - WAR, for those who are unaware, is an extremely PERSONAL business. The FACT Obama and his handlers constantly flout civilised LAWS only makes it easier to take action against him and other criminal psychopaths like him.

It is only a matter of time before the inevitable occurs, I need only flag the fact. As the sun rises so too the certainty of the event.
