

Tony Blair's Blood Money

In spite of Blair's now infamous '45 minute' LIE, which led Britain into an unholy alliance with the criminal Cheney/Bush administration -- facilitators for Oil Transnationals -- and the ensuing civilian Iraqi holocaust; Blair continues to feather his own nest and feed his unrestrained avarice on the misery he inflicts on others - this man is truly the worst type of criminal imaginable!

It matters little that the do nothing Chilcot inquiry exposed Blair as a heartless, unrepentant, criminal sociopath, Blair continues to make a mockery of every civilised law and convention that defines the majority of us as sentient, moral human beings.

Consulting for the world's wealthiest Corporations and individuals, such as JP Morgan (oil deals in Iraq) the Kuwaiti ruling (oil) family and now Indian billionaire and venture capitalist, Vinod Khosla, Blair is indeed able to call on his 'wealth' of experience as mass murderer and plunderer to offer specialised skills and 'privileged' knowledge to the highest bidder.

Blair, already a multi-millionaire, will be paid a retainer of approximately one million dollars per annum to 'advise' Khosla on methods of profiteering on climate change - well, he ought to know, the Petro-Chemical companies Blair works for created the problem! Of course Blair's 'advice' reduces to facilitator and business networker for wealthy profiteers and powerful plutocrats.

"Khosla said that with Tony's advice and 'influence' we will create opportunities for entrepreneurs and innovators to devise practical solutions that can solve today's most pressing problems."

You have it in the subtext, Corporatists - and their puppet governments - profit from the problems THEY create then profit by attempting to solve them! In the meantime the planet and humanity pays an ever increasing price for these DESTRUCTIVE and DEADLY GAMES. Indeed, I would offer this advice FREE, all our problems could be solved by simply eliminating sociopaths like Blair and the plutocrats and Corporatists he serves - surely humanity has already paid far too high a price in blood and the planet in poisonous industrial pollution!

I leave you to ruminate on this, “[Blair] has told friends he needs £5 million (approx. $9 million) a year to fund his lifestyle.” What’s a few million dead civilians when Blair’s lifestyle is at stake?

If ever there was a case for a war and other crimes against humanity, trial YOU finish the sentence, reader! And never forget that it’s business as usual with Obama and other western leaders today.

How much more are WE willing to PAY; but that question is now redundant as the planet will decide the outcome for us?
