

It ain't over till it's over -- Iraq, Afghanistan

The Corporate controlled media is currently overflowing with outright bullshit regarding America's wars of invasion and occupation. The line running is that the combat mission in Iraq is at an end and that the war is 'over;' also that 'progress' is being made in Afghanistan and that that war is 'winnable.' To add to those American dreams is the frantic sell that the global economy is 'recovering.'

Now recall the most absurd fantasy or fiction you have ever been exposed to and it will not surpass the bullshit coming out of Washington as I write.

Military Empires ALL fail due to the cost of military expansionism and occupation, America is no exception. Recall the very recent, in historical terms, Soviet experience in Afghanistan, now take a reality pill and realise that LIARS and criminals have taken control of the nation.

The reality is plain, even for lobotomised Americans; populations everywhere never cease fighting until all foreign invaders and occupiers are removed from their ancestral lands - history verifies the fact! That truth is under our very noses?

I can "guarantee" you this, and I rarely use that word; total economic collapse is imminent and any fool that leaves their funds in the stock market or insolvent banks (all of them) is the bigger fool indeed!

It would be preferable to return our respective nations to the people rather than allow criminals and rogues to ruin what is left of our world - chaos is the inheritance they leave!

Simply shoot, hang or otherwise eliminate the criminals before they destroy us all!

You need proof?

Just review the past Corporate controlled decade; unbridled avarice, incompetence, needless violence -- over one million civilians killed -- and flagrant economic and environmental vandalism!

The imminent (global) economic collapse will herald the black dawn of ruinous era never before seen or recorded by historians.

What will You do to prevent it?

We are One or we are nothing - you know it's the TRUTH!
