

Winter Winds

by Sandy Denny via stele Saturday, Sep 11 2010, 8:55am international / prose/poetry / other press winter winds they do blow cold, the time of year, is chosen.

now the frost and fire,
and now the sea is frozen.

he who sleeps he does not see the coming of the seasons, the filling of a dream without a time to reason.

when he walks through evil o'er the paths of broken illusions, carefully now he lives,
for he has mended her confusion.
