

Australia's Pathetic, Servile Politicians

by dasha Tuesday, Oct 19 2010, 10:31am

national / peace/war / commentary

Julia Gillard and Tony Abbott

Reminiscent of her meaning-devoid, abortive election slogan, "moving Australia forward," the Washington controlled Australian Prime Minister, Julia Gillard, has just dropped another meaningless American slogan onto a very aware Oz public, "Australia will not abandon Afghanistan." In view of the FACT the majority of Aussies OPPOSE the war and that Afghanis desire to be FREE of all plundering, civilian killing foreign invaders, it defies reason that this servile, cat-howling fishwife - masquerading as our leader -- would attempt to insult the Oz public with more moronic American slogans!

Oz PM and servile Washington lackey, Julia 'fishwife' Gillard

If the Oz political capital hasn't realised yet we had better remind the entire parliament that the bullshit stopped with Iraq! You got that, you miserable, unrepresentative, lackey slaves?

The upside of this pathetic subterfuge is that it makes it very easy to place the lot of 'em on trial for treason when the inevitable happens.

Here's some crucial advice for Canberra and Washington; just how far do all you corrupt politicians hope to get by insulting the public with your facile and transparent LIES/subterfuges?

If you seek Truth simply ASK the MAJORITY in Afghanistan, Iraq and Pakistan if they wish to be bombed and occupied by invading foreign forces interested only in their valuable resources and strategic land corridors.

Give us all a break you pathetic, script-reading, PUPPET politicians. Do not forget you were elected to REPRESENT the majority NOT serve sociopathic minority elites and criminal cabals that could care less for anything but their own perverse interests.

For more 'amazing,' Washington modelled quotes, follow the link -- how pathetic they are:

<http://tinyurl.com/2drw5se>

