WikiLeaks spokesperson and Oz citizen Julian Assange, handed himself over to British authorities yesterday, to face trumped-up charges of 'rape' brought by the Swedish government at the behest of the USA - why is the Corporate mass media so afraid of stating these plain facts?

Answer: simply because it is the Corporate and Banking ruling elites that control the governments of the USA, Sweden, Australia and a host of other western nations -- publishing the Truth for them is equivalent to committing suicide!

Corporatists pride themselves on managing/manipulating/misleading the public with fabricated 'realities;' anyone that threatens the fragile world of dreams and lies Corporatists create is immediately targeted for 'neutralisation' and/or assassination either literally or by reputation.

Consider the fact that a Swiss Bank has frozen WikiLeaks' account and that PayPal has ceased processing online donations and is withholding funds from the organisation; why should private interests wage a war on Assange if it is not in their interest to do so? Neither of these financial entities was obliged by law to attack Mr. Assange.

Also, be aware that the Oz government was ready to abandon, Julian Assange to foreigners until a public outcry forced Julia Gillard to acknowledge and respect citizens' rights. We should all marvel at the scripted chorus our respective governments and puppet politicians sing when questioned on Julian Assange and ask ourselves who exactly orchestrates these responses?

Puppet governments around the world have been marshalled and ordered to shutdown WikiLeaks' websites/servers and make life for Assange as difficult as possible. The media circus surrounding this ONE man is extraordinary, the 'shrill' or hysteria on the part of those forces attempting to silence Assange indicates desperation and panic.

NOW consider the fact that it is ONE MAN that has turned the most powerful nation in the world on its ear. Corporatists are in a frenzy exploring every avenue in their search for a means to silence WikiLeaks/Assange for good. I do not recall in recent history another individual wielding so much power/influence.

Perhaps we should recall the 'New World (slave) Order' that Corporatists would have us subscribe to and make a comparison with the world of open disclosure and real democracy that Assange prefers.

If we value our rights and hard won Liberties then Assange deserves our respect and support in his battle against the nefarious, mass murdering forces that would enslave us all.

Assange is quoted as saying that 'truth always wins' (in the end) - well, if the effect Assange is having on the world is any indication of the power of truth, then perhaps there is hope for the world yet. Give 'em hell, Julian, you are NOT alone!
