High profile progressive political commentators in the US still do not appear to grasp the REALITY of the situation, OR worse, they have become party to the obfuscation and political diversionary tactics of the CORPORATE controlled mass media!

A recent article by Larry Chin, 'titled' - yes, that's right, Mr David Letterman, not "entitled," look it up, you moron - "Obama: Servile Facilitator and Protector of the Political Establishment," spells out the OBVIOUS.

Obama is a puppet and expeditor of the agenda outlined by the Corporate ruling elite - SO WHAT'S NEW, the world would ask American citizens?

Would you kindly cease your winging and whining in relation to Obama's lack of integrity and lack of representation in the democratic process and take charge! Obaa'maa is simply and clearly a managed, tap-dancing 'house slave;' surely that fact is obvious by now?

Everything Obama has done supports and/or accelerates the Status Quo set in place three presidential terms back - with Bill Clinton's bombing of Europe and the illegal excising of sovereign European territory - which has created a highly unstable situation in the Balkan region.

Contrary to its feeble propaganda, which claims the opposite, America, in stark contrast to Empires that preceded it, creates massive instability everywhere it intervenes - the unfortunate consequences of which is horrendous loss of innocent life and the ruination of once relatively peaceful, functioning nations. So where is the mystery regarding the USA and its absurd leadership puppetry? CORPORATE control in the USA is a GIVEN!

For Pete's sake, doodles, it may be time to wake up - of course the unpleasant alternative becomes more possible as each somnambulistic day passes. Work that one out for yourselves -- if you are able.
