Richard Holbrooke, 'special' envoy to the Clinton administration during the illegal Balkan conflict, who gained international notoriety for befriending Interpol listed Kosovar murderers, drug dealers, white slavers, and KLA terrorists, died of a heart condition Monday at George Washington Hospital.

We surely wish him his just deserts when he inevitably faces the consequences of his actions - this universe is Just and Perfect and no one gets out with paying 'the banker' all the debts accrued or receiving one's reward for good deeds rendered; only fools and brutes imagine they are able to evade the consequences of their actions. Inviolable LAWS govern this universe, as Holbrooke will soon enough discover.

Holbrooke's actions in the Balkans created a blueprint for future illegal invasions and civilian holocausts in Iraq and Central Asia, however, the world learned the TRUE FACE and criminal tactics of America after the Balkan travesty. People in invaded nations around the globe now successfully defend their sovereign freedoms and rights against US Imperial ambitions. Every US campaign since the Balkans has been a disaster and if night SURELY follows day, these continuing, unwinnable conflicts will prove the undoing of the USA and its lackey allies -- if you people are still capable of adding 2+2, then be advised.

Holbrooke may have cheated the global community of temporal justice but no one cheats Creation and its inviolable Laws - every 'jot and tittle,' no one gets out!

Good riddance to bad rubbish and may his ilk follow in his foul footsteps, sooner rather than later, Cheney is next!
