

Bereft Yank Premier Divorced from Reality

A headline from one of Murdoch's Aussie rags reads, "Kristina Keneally says she can still win NSW state election!" For international readers not familiar with this woman, she is an AMERICAN pretending to power in the State of NSW, Australia - not difficult to understand in view of the recent WikiLeaks exposure of Labor Party factional leader, Mark Arbib's treasonous relationship with Washington. If that revelation doesn't turn the Australian people then the prospect of enduring more incompetence from a Yank State Premier, might.

Kristina Keneally

This woman has nothing to offer the people of NSW but her mouth; she like her American counterpart Sarah Palin, 'worked' her way through the ranks with liberal applications of lip gloss and assistance from grateful politicians who 'somehow' arrived at the conclusion that a face and open mouth is all that is required to assume political office.

I once had occasion to monitor a tall, stunningly beautiful Chinese spy, who fucked her way through Telstra's hierarchy and no doubt gained valuable information for the mother country in the process. It was pathetic witnessing old married directors and other high officials driving off with her in their Jags and other private luxury vehicles; no doubt for private 'discussions' about how best to serve the communication needs of Australia!

So to have traitorous local politicians (Arbib and Federal Labor) subservient to Washington and a stinking Yank State Premier 'representing' the interests of the AUSTRALIAN PEOPLE seems nothing out of the ordinary these days, but the PEOPLE may have something to say about that come polling day.

When no real Labor Party exists, expect pretenders and traitors to be duly dealt with by the people.

[Vote REAL INDEPENDENTS representing the interests of the Australian Community in ALL Oz elections!]
