In an unparalleled performance of complete subservience and subordination, Oz PM Julia Gillard, committed HERSELF (thankfully, she was not speaking for the majority of Aussies) to ALL America's CRIMINAL wars without reservation. She indirectly praised the ideology of Wall St and the Federal Reserve system, which has ruined the global economy – a 'minor' detail for a sycophant -- and generally sucked even harder than Catherine the Great in her address to a joint-session of Congress.

Gillard speech, boring!

Aside from making Oz a primary nuclear target by allowing America to build large scale, third world type, military bases on our soil, 'she' now advocates a new FARM BILL to allow 'more open trade' – in other words, for the dumbarses that support her, here comes American MAD COW beef to pollute our local product and be consumed by unwary Aussies.

I imagined it would be impossible to beat the cowardly subservience displayed by Howard and Rudd but Gillard has amazed us all with her grovelling flattery to Congress – her entire speech simply articulated what Americans wanted desperately to hear, but with gusto – it made most true blue Aussie patriots puke.

Gillard effectively surrendered Oz sovereignty to her Washington overlords; soon the disgusting twang of American accents will be heard in all our capital cities, as American military personnel peruse their new colonial acquisition.

Fortunately, Gillard spoke for very few Aussies; her shameless acquiescence and allowances can easily be reversed by a new leader with AUSTRALIA'S BEST INTERESTS AT HEART.

What Gillard failed to realise is that a very good friend does not agree with EVERYTHING, instead a good friend offers helpful, CRITICAL advice, especially with regard to war crimes, torture and gross injustices; to quote a famous American novelist, "I never learned from a man who agreed with me." If the woman had a shred of integrity she would do Oz a favour and stay over there indefinitely, the yanks can have her.
