Russian representative for African affairs, Mikhail Margelov, declared yesterday that the UN sanctioned US/NATO 'humanitarian intervention,' (oil grab) in Libya has failed. He cited the current stalemate on the ground as evidence of the fact.

However, in desperate efforts to either partition Oil rich East Libya or murder Gaddafi (not mandated by the UN) while making feeble attempts to comply with UN prohibitions of deploying ground troops (other than CIA agents and NATO 'military advisors') Oil Companies have (effectively) instructed Obama to deploy war crime weaponry in the form of civilian killing 'Nobel Peace Prize' Drones - give the WORLD a break with this TRANSPARENT INVASION and OIL GRAB, Baa'raack, you reprehensible Corporate LACKEY!

The issue is NOT the known quantity that is CRIMINAL, CORPORATIST AMERICA -- attempting to plunder resources behind the flimsiest pretexts -- but rather the FAILURE of Russia and China to ENFORCE UN resolutions and mandates - first Kosovo, now Libya!

A no-fly zone should mean exactly that -- NO AIR ACTIVITY WHATSOEVER and should be vigorously enforced by Security Council resolutions.

Margelov, hinted that deploying western ground troops or a disproportionate escalation (what does he think is occurring now?) would threaten a continental 'African War.' Well, comrade 'all talk and no balls,' you are CLEARLY full of shit!

The entire world remembers ILLEGALLY stolen Kosovo and is aware that a conflict of continental proportions in Africa would require Chinese and Russian support. So, do your tattered credibility a favour and cease the tedious pretence that Russia and China have somehow not been BOUGHT by the same Banking and Financial interests that OWN America and Western Europe.

The global SOLUTION, comrade, will come from the people; look to your own abused population and the yawning wealth disparities if you would see!

A message for you comrade Hu; the largest population on the earth becomes the strongest social force on the earth when the fragile corrupt threads that hold it together at present, break. The criminal corruption that infects America and Western Europe is even more entrenched in the Russian and Chinese leaderships!

I'll offer a rough timeline for you, 'comrades.' Before this decade is out, the world as we have known it will be no more - there are other forces at work, which are light years ahead of your limited think tanks; your avarice and greed limit your perceptions to myopic world views, enough said!

You will ALL hear from us soon enough.
