Without a shred of credible evidence, bungling White House criminal puppets continue to retract press release after press release of misinformation relating to the murder of Bin Laden in Pakistan. But when did American society begin to accept stories without question from known lying, criminal governments?

Notwithstanding the completely transparent circus performances of White House officials (buffoons) the Corporate mass media continues to adhere to the principle of the BIG LIE, as developed by Goebbels and Hitler; the media bombing campaign continues in the vain hope that repetition will eventually convince the demented among us that an unsubstantiated story is truth.

If you believe the total fiction issuing from the Obama White House then you should have no difficulty believing that I am Jesus Christ - it's true, 'ya can take it to the bank!' Yaay! U-S-A, U-S-A, U-S-A! [Demented.]

I've got a short clip (below) for those with a tenuous grip on their sanity -- it covers the true story of aliens among us from 'alpha-rectori' -- it's trooo!
