

Only You

international / prose/poetry / literature

offered a saving hand
while kin and others
gloated like ghouls
and vampires
over my slow demise --
feeding on my misfortune

you
hailed me from the mire while others urged you to abandon a 'lost cause', a 'hopeless case'

turned my morbid introspection/focus outward and fixed my gaze on the stars prepping my mind for the splendour of Infinity

taught me
to abandon the discords of death and embrace the harmonies of life

you did this for me without the slightest selfish motive or expectation

it was your selfless,
benevolent actions
that transformed my being and brought me back to myself be pleased in the knowledge that your selfless work blossomed into a devastating force that drives malevolent elites to distraction.

to think how close to death

i was before you found me;
muse over the thought that today the life you saved is targeted, hunted though they have little chance of success thanks to the survival mechanism you planted in my being eternal gratitude

and heartfelt thanks
to you,
a kind Samaritan
reviled by tribal Jews
and Romans alike.
