

Why is there no news from Libya?

by Ali Sunday, Jan 29 2012, 5:56am

international / mass media / commentary

Answer: because the news does not favour the western criminal interests that demolished the country.

Libya is perhaps the CLEAREST, crystal in fact, example of UN corruption, NATO and US war crimes and a very brave people fighting for their lives against western backed terrorist forces.

The real news is Libyans are bravely fighting western backed terrorist forces on the ground; wholesale theft, murder, TORTURE and rape of the civilian population has forced average Libyans to defend themselves against the PAID criminals the US and NATO placed on the ground -- remember what Obama said, "America has achieved its objectives [regime change/assassination, oil theft and debt slavery] in Libya without placing [uniformed] troops on the ground." Well, not for long, as the brave people of Libya refuse to be subjected to the tyrannical rule of a corrupt proxy government serving western criminal interests!

Go on Corporate mass media, we dare you to cover stories of US/NATO's ongoing 'successes' in Libya -- you should be proud, why the media blackout? Surely, progress reports of 'liberated' Libya seem appropriate!