

Eternity (and Fleeting Moments)

where would
we seek continuity
what form would it/we take?

would we discover it
in vacuous
formalised religions,
cultural conventions and social protocols,
or in transient pleasures,
fleeting sensual gratification;
or in temporary achievements/failures do these things endure - do they really satisfy our inherent need for everlasting?

did we, as complex physical, mental and spiritual BEings appear from nothing -
every school kid knows that something cannot emanate from nothing?
are we not already part of living creation, continuous manifestations of infinity at play?

have we been fooled into believing in beginnings and endings
when infinity,
which encompasses everything,
is measureless,

without start or end?

i learnt in Central Australia from indigenous tribes
how to jettison time and space and enter the dreaming/continuity; how to navigate between seen and unseen how to hear the roar of butterfly wings creating cyclones
that blow 'white' illusions away.

i became myself again and saw my reflection in a pond next to a perfect image of the moon which a frog dispersed, plop!
but i remained
tho my image
was shattered by an amphibian leap.

i endured but my delusions were easily destroyed.

i traversed that solarised desert landscape of dreams, spirits, singing stones, rivers of light
and ageless beings, who seemed to know me well, until i discovered
my enduring quality;
it is comprised of
Harmony, Peace and Love
-- in equal parts --
forming an indestructible Perfection that is inseparable from you/me.

one day another amphibian able to breathe both light and dark will destroy
the image that you imagine i am;
if you wish to find me
use your Love,
its wings will deliver you safely to me and everlasting.

[until we meet again, i entrust the sweetest Peace to You.

*listen for me in the wind and remember
'white' cultural realities/illusions only make paper rafts which are* *supremely unsuitable for the swirling, cosmic seas

of Eternity.]*
