Eternity (and Fleeting Moments)

where would we seek continuity what form would it/we take?

would we discover it in vacuous formalised religions, cultural conventions and social protocols, or in transient pleasures, fleeting sensual gratification; or in temporary achievements/failures do these things endure do they really satisfy our inherent need for everlasting?

did we, as complex physical, mental and spiritual BEings appear from nothing every school kid knows that something cannot emanate from nothing? are we not already part of living creation, continuous manifestations of infinity at play?

have we been fooled into believing in beginnings and endings when infinity, which encompasses everything, is measureless, without start or end?

i learnt in Central Australia from indigenous tribes how to jettison time and space and enter the dreaming/continuity; how to navigate between seen and unseen how to hear the roar of butterfly wings creating cyclones that blow 'white' illusions away.

i became myself again and saw my reflection in a pond next to a perfect image of the moon which a frog dispersed, plop! but i remained tho my image was shattered by an amphibian leap.

i endured but my delusions were easily destroyed.

i traversed that solarised desert landscape of dreams, spirits, singing stones, rivers of light and ageless beings, who seemed to know me well, until i discovered my enduring quality; it is comprised of Harmony, Peace and Love -- in equal parts -- forming an indestructible Perfection that is inseparable from you/me.

one day another amphibian able to breathe both light and dark will destroy the image that you imagine i am; if you wish to find me use your Love, its wings will deliver you safely to me and everlasting.

[until we meet again, i entrust the sweetest Peace to You.

listen for me in the wind and remember 'white' cultural realities/illusions only make paper rafts which are supremely unsuitable for the swirling, cosmic seas of Eternity.]
