

The Obscenity of Unrepresentative Government

It was an American event journo's dinner at the White House that triggered this response. Obama is now known internationally as just another puppet clown serving Wall St elites; it has become painfully obvious to the world that this black (sell-out) lackey is completely devoid of compassion and any sense of empathy with the common people, as indeed are ALL political leaders in Western (former) democracies today.

How many innocent children have we killed today, Mr Obama?

My first alert of Obama's insincerity was during a political rally for the nomination; he could barely contain his condescending laughter at the time, it was obvious he thoroughly enjoyed the mindless chanting of the moronic American public, repeating with appropriate vacuity, the catch-phrase, "yes, we can .." without a grammatical qualifier! Most chanters today with an IQ above 5, are embarrassed at how easily they were conned. Nevertheless, embarrassment will in no way prevent them from doing it all over again because you see, there are NO REAL VIABLE ALTERNATIVES in American politics, it is a closed system -- the people are led to believe that any contender outside the two major (owned) parties is an INVIABLE radical quack/eccentric running for amusement purposes only -- to 'pad' the 'chosen' field so to speak!

Soon after gaining office Obama dutifully signed an order to illegally Drone attack suspected terrorists (civilians) in Pakistan -- women and children were murdered, there was no turning back now, the trained black dog had been blooded and was now as guilty as his murdering criminal handlers.

Obama went on to crack jokes at the public's expense about genital groping by the TSA and missiles coming out of the sky without warning, 'you won't see it coming', he threatened!

It became very clear that Obama was/is a sociopath, as are the people that placed him in office -- an elite minority cabal that Obama unswervingly serves at great cost to the people. [Do YOU think we can do better than that?]

I am not referring to a choice between black leprosy and mormon bubonic plague but to REAL REPRESENTATION someone/anyone that has the PEOPLE'S best interests at heart not Wall Street's or the minority Big End of town. After all, Democracy by definition is MAJORITY not minority rule!

Obama is not an isolated case; in Australia, Washington and Goldman Sachs lackey PM, Juliar Gillard, reneged on a promise not to impose a Carbon tax on the people; immediately after gaining office she reversed her stance, backstabbed the public, and slugged the entire nation with a crucifying Goldman Sach's designed Carbon Tax for the benefit of Corporate and Bankster elites -- again at great cost to the people. Without a mandate Gillard also compromised Australia's regional security by kowtowing to Washington's demands and allowing a staggering FIVE full scale (nuclear) military bases on Oz soil -- an act which effectively makes Australia a Primary Nuclear Target in the event of a conflict with China.

The Europeans would have similar complaints about their UNREPRESENTATIVE leaders, Merkel, Sarkozy, Cameron, etc. It's not enough it seems that these traitorous scumbags serve minority elites and openly display contempt for the people -- they clearly relish their job!

The people are only able to exercise their combined political power at election time, consider well whether YOU would continue to support owned non-representative politicians or whether you would restore democracy and VOTE REPRESENTATIVE INDEPENDENTS into office at every election.

If in any doubt just take a look at the track record of these elitist non-representative scumbags; perpetual war, slaughter of innocents for Corporate profits and locked down societies in preparation for draconian police-state repression/oppression.

They didn't see YOUR missile coming, Mr Obama!
