international / peace/war / news report

Sunday, 7 January 2007, 1pm AEDT

A bulletin on Newsradio Australia, detailed Israeli rehearsals for an attack on Iran! Israeli attack aircraft are flying practise runs to Gibraltar in preparation for a (laser) guided missile attack on Iranian targets; the laser missiles would be followed by a nuclear strike in order to irradiate the target sites! Reference was made to the 1981 strike on an Iraqi target believed at the time to be engaged in developing WMD!

Israel stated plainly (lamented) that it could not succeed in the attack against Iran without international assistance!

News like this the world does not need, the perfect lunch spoiler. The 'news' report was broadcast without the slightest concern or commentary, imagine that! Would it be inappropriate to state that the news item indicates the world has gone over the edge, MAD, INSANE, seem to me the most accurate descriptions? But perhaps I have misinterpreted what was broadcast, so please correct me if I have erred! I would welcome this correction like I welcome a newborn child; in fact, I would celebrate the beauty and sanctity of life on earth and consider the whole episode a bad dream.

News report confirmed at 5:15pm AEDT.

The 'news' report was initially released in a coalition nation by the Murdoch owned Sunday Times! All references to 'secret sources' etc, are journo trade embellishments/tricks. The release was clearly planned and timed, especially when consideration is given to the miserable performance of coalition forces in Iraq and the extreme pressure that coalition leaders, particularly, Bush, are under at the present time.

The (unused) rushed delivery of 30 'bunker busters' (tactical nuclear weapons) to Israel by the USA during the South Lebanon conflict seemed unwarranted at the time but today the murky machinations of the ultra-right forces of Zionism and the Washington neo-cons, become clear. The PNAC agenda (specifically Middle East domination) also adds credence to what would seem to have been a delay in plans; due principally to Israel's unsuccessful foray against Iranian backed Hezbollah, in South Lebanon.

The nihilistic ultra-right 'marches on' (to oblivion!) Lessons not learnt from the known behaviour and profiles of previous megalomaniac, aspiring world dominators, promises to be exceedingly costly for us all. A recently posted article refers to exactly the attack outlined in the Times - how timely!

"Almost all the neo-conservatives have now departed the seats of power in the Bush administration and retreated to their sinecures at Washington think tanks, to plot the next war - on Iran."

Regardless of the questionable articles of American Republicans our concern is with the continued inaction of the public in the face of escalating violence from known war criminals. History is witness to the fact that these types never cease their insane pursuits - the application of external force is always required! Never forget it was the failure of the German people to resist the Nazi regime that enabled Hitler and his criminal gang of sociopaths to wreak havoc on the world.

Failure to act against any nation or group of nations that even hint at deploying nuclear weaponry would lead to a calamity that would make the horrors of WWII appear as minor vandalism.

ARREST THE KNOWN CRIMINALS, BUSH, BLAIR AND HOWARD AND THEIR SUPPORT NETWORKS BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!
