

Convenient Coincidences

Analysts are trained to give special attention to what appears to be coincidence. A good example of this today would be the current hysteria in the UK over the racial vilification of an Indian actress on some inane TV show and 'coincidentally', in Australia, the mysterious 'surfacing' of an extremist DVD allegedly produced by an Australian Wahhabist Muslim. The mass media of both these nations is saturated by these attention-stealing 'stories'. The attention of the respective populations has been conveniently diverted away from coalition forces quietly preparing for a nuclear attack on Iran. It could also be argued that the racist card is being utilised to soften western populations to the use of nuclear weapons – after all, unwashed Arabs and Persians are expendable, aren't they?

The Australian Prime Minister is adept in the use of these tactics of distraction and social manipulation; Aussie consultants were sent to Canada to assist in the last elections and Britain maintains strong ideological connections to Australia. In view of the crushing backlash against Bush and to a lesser extent Blair, consultants are favouring the despicable techniques of the Australian liar and social manipulator extraordinaire, John Howard! Howard is presently in dread of the David Hicks issue grabbing the public's attention and exposing the many failings of his inadequate and disgustingly servile government. Today we are all victims/witnesses to the increased use of these despicable gutter tactics developed by the Nazi, Joseph Goebbels.

We are all familiar with the trick of distracting a child from tantrum or other inconvenient behaviour; however, few are aware that exactly the same methods are utilised to similar effect on the masses. Goebbels often quoted from one of his favourite authors that the masses have the brain and intelligence of a small child – unfortunately, as is clearly evident today, Goebbels spoke truth.

Society must FREE ITSELF or remain enslaved by cowardly manipulators, thieves and murderers. Awareness is the simple cure against these easily detectable tactics. Perhaps increased personal and social awareness may eventually inaugurate a new social paradigm but it would need to occur in a hurry – the forces of destruction are hell bent and in rapid movement.

Be AWARE!

Peace.
