John Howard, known internationally as a Bush lackey, shameless coward, racist and abandoner of Australian citizens, today levelled a criticism at U.S. Presidential candidate, Barack Obama. The 'aluminium tubing' Prime Minister stated that Obama's Iraq policy would "completely destabilise and destroy Iraq". Howard seems 'completely' oblivious to the FACT that his participation in the illegal invasion and occupation of Iraq has ALREADY COMPLETELY DESTABILISED AND DESTROYED Iraq!

Sen. Barack Obama

Iraq today is a LIVING HELL, the legacy of the Howard, Bush and Blair illegal military intervention. The Iraqi death toll directly attributed to the invasion now exceeds 670,000 souls! Howard's ill-considered attack on Obama AND the U.S. Democrats has led some in his own party to question his mental competence; Howard's recent gaffe in Parliament question time, just prior to his attack on Obama, now appears to have been an early indication of mental deterioration expressing itself as a gross failure in judgement.

Nevertheless, Howard is a proven liar and war criminal; the sooner he is arrested and held accountable, the sooner Australia would be able to return to sound domestic and international policies. The 'aluminium tubing' Prime Minister must be held accountable for his actions - that is the reality of Howard and Iraq!

Howard's irrational outburst is indicative of panic and desperation. World opinion now directly opposes his myopic conservative ideology. However, the shift in world opinion also highlights the failure of opposition political parties - few have demanded the immediate arrest of Bush, Blair or Howard for their obvious crimes; this clearly indicates that opposition parties serve similar interests!

Recent international polls reflect cynical attitudes to ALL politicians - it would seem that the long established charade of presenting 'opposing' parties is over! Slowly but inevitably the public is becoming aware of the influence of international conservatism in the affairs of domestic politics. People everywhere are becoming aware of the destructive effects that Financial, Corporate and theological interests have had on society and the environment.

Representative government is emerging as the most critical issue in today's world. The critical problems we face today demand honesty and integrity from governments - be advised! Failure to address this issue would result in social destabilisation on an unprecedented scale.

The experience of ten years conservative rule proves without doubt that traditional forms of non-representative government are unworkable. Critical issues of reconciliation, peace, mutual cooperation and Unity, must be addressed and embraced if the world is to avoid continuing conflict and destruction.

Together we are able to heal the earth and save our lives, divided we are destroyed. Arresting known war criminals is pre-requisite to the healing process - there are no substitutes for facing reality and ARRESTING the CRIMINALS.

We are ONE

Peace.
